School Daze! School Daze!

You don't have to go to school to be in this kind of daze. Every week I kinda sit in and help with the ad but I never did write one alone before — so I'm really kinda stupid about the whole thing. Suppose I should tell you people that have been askin' after cottage hams that we have some of 'em, but I ain't gonna mention the price. If you're interested stop in — but we have got somethin' interestin'. Those spare ribs — 'member how good they were the last time? This time they're better and they're only 49c a lb. Now that school lunches are a big item, we've got some bologna that is good plain, ground up, sliced up, flat or in the ring. Speakin' in of rings, are you gonna visit the horse show this comin' week end? I hope so cause there's gonna be some awful special stuff — like the Detroit Mounted Police. They're gonna perform Sunday afternoon. Oh heck, I forgot, that bologna we mentioned up there is 45c a lb. Weiners aint so good for school sandwiches, but they're OK for a lunch and they're only 49c a pound.

Since it is kind of cool weather a little bit maybe you would like a pot of chili some noon too. We've got all the makin's, even the kidney beans. We're gonna give you a special on 'em this week so you can stash (is that right?) a few away for the coming winter months. Would you be interested in a few cans at 2 for 29c? You know these prices are for Thursday and Friday and Saturday. Yeah, wanna mention that the Horse Show is gonna be on Saturday afternoon and Saturday evening. It's nice and cool out there. Might be a few mosquitoes floatin' around, but get your bug bomb at Conroy's and we'll see you out there.

To git back to the meat counter, I'm sure havin' a time between tryin' to sell you somethin' and gettin' you out to the Horse Show. Know somethin'? We got another load of those smoked hams this week. You can have the shank end for only 41c a pound, So come early and fill your larder.

City of Farmington voters and those living in Precinct One of the Township will mark their ballots at the Farmington Town Hall, while voters of Precinct Two of the Township will vote at the Macahee Hall in Clarencville.

It is expected that a good percentage of voters will vote in the primary election, as considerable interest was shown in the registration period just completed. Only registered voters are eligible to vote, as no registrations may be taken at the polls on election day, following recent action by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

Squad Practice

plays and their numbers.
In the number five spot, which is really a key guard position, Burch reported Jack Boyce looking good, with Fred Peters right behind him vying for the same job.
John Buck was named as working hard in the sixth position, (center), with Cliff Seeger, senior, working under him.

Howard Packard as number four, guard, is also being groomed as a place kicker. Burch said he will try for extra points and kick-offs. Red Hallaman, sophomore, has shown lots of promise for the number four spot under Packard.

At the number three position, (tackle), both Louis Charron and Tom Seckler looked good. Working out at number two, strong side end, were Dave Demyer and Lee Tyler.

At left tackle, or number seven, were senior Jack Clark, Bates, and Alan Lind. Lefty Aschenbrenner, a promising sophomore, and Keith Wood were working out in the number eight (left end) spot.

The coaches said that a junior varsity team and a freshman team will be formed, and will play regular schedules like the varsity. The freshman team has also been holding practice, and is learning the fundamentals under the instruction of Robert Hutten.

There is still room for boys who would like to turn out for the team. Nuse said, and anyone who is interested may turn out. With three teams playing, everyone will play on one team or another.
