WARM WELCOME FOR PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Back from his yachting vacation looking tanned and fit, President Truman is welcomed by Mary Ann Ross, 18-month old granddaughter of Presidential Press secretary Charles Ross. Mrs. Ross, the child's grandmother, is holding her.

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cook, formerly of McNeill, Mississippi, have recently returned to Farmington and will make their home here. Mrs. Cook is the former Dolores Jacobs. Mrs. Richard Miller of Lansing was hostess at a personal shower at the home of Mrs. W. W. Lake on Alycekey Road, honoring Miss Peggy Dwyer of 31900 Arlington Drive. The rooms were attractive, decorated with wedding favors and garden flowers and a delicious luncheon was served. Miss Dwyer became the bride of Mr. Norman Davidson of 18615 Brentwood at St. Michael's Church, Nine Mile and Evergreen Roads, at 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, September 4.

A pleasant old time family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Ward when a group of eleven and neighbors of Mrs. Ward's gathered on Wednesday, August 25. A buffet luncheon was served on the lawn. Included in the group of twenty were Mr. and Mrs. A. Callaghan and son, Danny, of Vancouver, B. C., and Mrs. Lila Coyle and Mrs. Earl C. Cook of Seattle, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker attended the wedding of Miss Shirley Sampson and Emil Vranko on Saturday, September 4, at Cass City, Michigan.

Mrs. Joseph E. Haas, Sr., has returned to her home in Miami, Florida. She spent the week end of August 27 with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Rudberg and son, Bill, accompanied by Mrs. Rudberg's brother, have returned home from a vacation trip through Wisconsin, and to their former home in Northern Michigan.
