Big Grain Eaters

It has been said that if the rats of America could be controlled, enough grain would be stored that way alone to feed all the hungry peoples abroad. One of the most important steps in rat control is to make all buildings rat-proof.

When is a Fool?

The story is told of a king's fool whose job was to entertain the royal family. He was given a staff and told to keep it until he met a greater fool than himself. One day the king was taken suddenly ill. He became weaker and weaker. The fool came to the king's bedside.

"Alas," cried the king, "I am going on a long journey."
"Where is my lord going," asked the fool.
"Ah," sighed the king, "I do not know."
"And when will the king return?" asked the fool.
"I shall not come back," said the king.

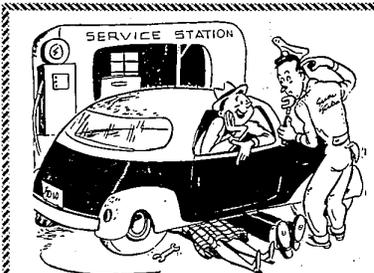

"And has my lord prepared for that journey?" asked the fool.
"Alas . . . I have not . . . and I am afraid," cried the king. As the fool knelt by the bedside, he slipped his staff into the king's hands. "My lord," he said, "I have art a greater fool than I, for you are going on a long journey from which you will never return and you have made no preparations."
A man is a fool when he neglects to prepare for his eternal destiny. This life is so crowded with duties and activities that it is very easy to forget about eternity. But eternity is ahead, and everyone must take that long, long journey . . . into eternity!

How wonderful it is that God has pointed out just how to prepare for this long journey. God has spoken through His Son, Jesus Christ; and Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me."
To miss Him is to miss salvation, to miss Him means that you are unprepared for that journey into eternity.

The reason Jesus is the way is that God judged Him for the sins of all the world—for you and me. The moment you believe in your heart that Jesus died for you, and accept Him as your Saviour, you are saved.
"How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?"
