THE Strange CASE OF GEORGE WILSON

In 1929 two men—Wilson and Porter—were convicted of robbing the United States mail, and sentenced to death by hanging. Three weeks before the time set for Wilson's execution, he was pardoned by President Andrew Jackson.

Strangely enough, Wilson refused the pardon. The case went to the Supreme Court (United States vs. George Wilson, 7 Peters' Report, p. 150) and the court finally handed down its decision: "A pardon is a deed, to the validity of which delivery is essential, and delivery is a complete without acceptance. It may then be rejected by the not complete to whom it is tendered; and if it is rejected, we have discovered no power in this court to force it upon him."

Most people would agree that Wilson was a fool for refusing to accept a pardon. Yet there were some people fully reject the pardon which God had provided for them.

Because God is just. He must punish our sins. But because God is merciful, He Himself suffered the awful penalty when Jesus Christ, His Son, suffered all the wrath of God against our sins as He died on the cross of Calvary. "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Your pardon has been signed by God Himself. Now all you need to do is accept it by telling God in prayer that you wish to be counted among those for whom Christ died. Unless you accept the pardon, you remain condemned.

Wilson's was a strange case. But then, Wilson was a fool.

PLYMOUTH GIRL MARRIED TO JOSEPH DeVRIENDT

A very pretty wedding was celebrated in the Farmington Methodist Church at eight o'clock Saturday evening, September 11, when Miss Florence Margaret Kohaseki, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Komarski of Plymouth, was united in marriage to Joseph H. DeVriendt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeVriendt of Farmington.

The double ring service was read by the Rev. A. Stanley Stone in the presence of 250 guests, before an altar decorated with palms and baskets of white gladioli and asters. Tall white tapered candles gleamed.

Following the ceremony Edith Parker Stone sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a gown of slipper satin, fashioned with short puffed sleeves, and detachable wristlets, her skirt ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a seed pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white carnation corsage. She appeared on the altar on the arm of her eldest brother, Alex, who gave her in marriage.

Miss Patricia Wheeler, as maid of honor, wore a gown of aqua green taffeta, fashioned with a scalloped, off the shoulder neckline, and a full skirt with scalloped overskirt. Her bridesmaids wore deep rose taffeta, with matching headresses. Their bouquets were of Picardy gladioli.

Flower girls were Joyce Rudick, niece of the bride, and Jane Catherman, niece of the groom's mother. They wore identical gowns of pink net over taffeta and matching net and flower headresses.

Richard DeVriendt attended his brother as best man, and ushers were R. J. Auten of Farmington and Robert Russell of Plymouth.

The bride's mother chose a gown of gold crepe, with brown accessories, and she wore a corsage of rosebuds. Mrs. DeVriendt wore a gown of grey crepe, with a hat of blue pink ostrich plumes and net. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

The groom's grandmother, Mrs. Catherman, wore a blue dress, with blue accessories, and she had a corsage of tallman roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the American Legion Memorial Home. About 300 guests were present from Grand Rapids, Flint, Birmingham, Detroit, Northville, Plymouth and Farmington.

For going away the new Mrs. DeVriendt wore a beige gabardine suit, with brown accessories, and the corsage from her bride's bouquet. After a short honeymoon in northern Michigan the couple will make their home in Plymouth.
