Civic Theatre

80 who has a birthday on September 20 will be admitted free.

An opinion contest is also planned in which 20 passes will be given to the first five persons sending in the most interesting opinion in 200 words or less; discussing, praising or criticizing the operations of the Civic during the past eight years.

Mayor Delos Hamlin made a proclamation to the effect that "Civic Theatre Week" is to be celebrated September 20 to 27. During this time, the area of Grand River and Farmington Roads is renamed Civic Square, the mayor said.

In a letter to Hohler honoring the occasion, Mayor Hamlin said, "I am certain that many will avail themselves of the good amusement opportunities offered at the Civic, and it gives me great pride and pleasure to give my personal endorsement to the continued success of the Civic Theater in Farmington, and to wish you a very happy anniversary."

The Civic has been active in the community and its work includes sponsoring a bowling league giving free shows, making the theatre available for charity movies, giving Halloween parties, a benefit election party, a Goodfellow Food party, free movies for the graduates of Farmington High School, sponsoring a Boy and Girl Scout Benefit, and bond selling.

Holders of "hot money" in Farmington will also be admitted free. Anyone having a one dollar bill, serial F5167690E, five dollar bill serial K69533334A, ten dollar bill serial A5328393B, or twenty dollar bill serial G05465224B will be given four passes good for any show during the anniversary week.

VALERY WALTERS IS BRIDE OF DANIEL STADLER

Miss Valery Jean Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Walters of 24928 Oakland Road, became the bride of Daniel Abbott Stadler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stadler, 26002 Farmington Road, at a pretty wedding held Friday evening, September 10, at eight o'clock in the Farmington Methodist Church. Rev. A. Stanley Stone performed the ceremony.

Valery given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with a long train, and a fingertip veil. She carried a white shower bouquet of roses, gladioli and baby mums.

Miss Vera Dietrich, maid of honor, was dressed in a gown of rose pink, and she carried a bouquet of orchid flowers.

Miss Helen Oliphant of Nashville, Tennessee, a cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. The bride was dressed in green, and carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

John Stadler was his brother's best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Walters chose a gown of tulle, and she wore a corsage of rubrum lilies. The groom's mother, Mrs. Stadler, was dressed in blue, and she wore a corsage of bronze baby orchids.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Helen Early presided at the punch bowl and Miss Judy Rudberg presided at the coffee table. The bride was assisted in cutting the wedding cake by Mrs. Marion Bradley and Mrs. James Lay.

Guests at the wedding included the groom's two grandmothers, Mrs. Stadler and Mrs. Bartholomew from Lima, Ohio, the bride's aunts, Mrs. A. V. Kingsley of Pasadena, California, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oliphant and two children of Nashville, Tennessee, Mrs. F. A. Warner from St. Louis, Missouri, and others from Ft. Wayne, Indiana, Chicago, Illinois, and Ravenna, Michigan.

Following a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains, the young couple will make their home in Ravenna, Michigan.

Clarenceville Band Will Play At Season Opener

The Clarenceville High School Band will attend the opening football game with Walter Lake High School to perform during the game. Band Director Arthur Mann announced this week.

Clarenceville's Band was treated royally at the State Fair where it presented a half-hour concert last week, Mann said. The band was awarded a cup by the State Fair Board, and marched in a parade in the evening.
