

WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-M

Miss Gloria Sidellaker, formerly of West Point Park but now of Detroit, was the guest of Mrs. Stanley Schilling last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Attama and son, John, Jr., were among the visitors at the State Fair Saturday. Mrs. Edward Stromski and Mrs. Spaulding, from Washtenaw, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Ault home Wednesday evening.

Miss Norma Judd was the overnight guest Saturday of relatives in Detroit.

Miss Barbara Williamson spent a couple of days last week with her grandmother, near Redford.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Armstrong entertained a group of friends from Flint last Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Welch spent Saturday with friends at Brighton.

Mrs. James Simpson, who has spent much of her time lately in Detroit with her mother, who has been very ill, reports that the patient is now considerably improved.

Mr. Wedell, of Penbrooke Avenue, is now able to get about a little, tho still in poor health. The Wedells plan returning to California as soon as arrangements can be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grundy were attending a friend's funeral in Detroit Wednesday.

Mrs. Willet, from Redford, was again the week end guest of the Willets on Mayfield Avenue.

The Stanley Chaveys returned last week from their vacation trip.

The Willets were sisters in Pontiac Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mercer, of Seven Mile Road, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Boyer in Dearborn.

A baby girl was born Sunday night to Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol of Shadydale Avenue. Mother and child are in St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac.

The Sidellakers were around again for a few days last week.

John Attama and his son, John, Jr., spent Sunday at Orchard Lake.

Mrs. Walter Bohalu reports having visited with her niece, Mrs. Carl Rubie, at their family reunion at Cedar Lake, Indiana. Mrs. Rubie, who formerly spent much of her time in West Point Park, tho now located at Bronson, Michigan, sent regards to all of her old friends.

Mrs. Cecil Willet, who had a bad attack of illness a few weeks ago, has had a relapse and is again confined to her bed.

Mrs. M. E. Ault was meeting her sister, Mrs. Mary Stromski, in downtown Detroit this Monday. Mrs. Stromski is about to make a vacation visit to relatives near Pittsburg.

Honoring her 14th birthday, a pleasant little party was tendered Catherine Eckman, of Farmington Road, Saturday afternoon. Ten guests were in attendance.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Shirley, were guests at a very beautiful wedding — that of Marylyn, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Blavitt, Detroit folks, but claiming a considerable number of friends in this locality. The marriage took place in the Mayflower Congregational Church, with a reception immediately following at the Dearborn Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Anderson and children, who resided on Farmington Road, are now newly located in Iowa, to which state Mr. Anderson was transferred.

Mrs. John Mercer was spending this Monday in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Finn and child are getting settled in the property on Hubbard Avenue lately occupied by the Greens. Their belongings arrived from out-state last Wednesday.

Clyde Buckingham was off on a fishing trip during the week end.

Wednesday, September 8, was a Fun Day for the Sunshine Sisters. A group of them met around the outdoor fireplace on the O. R. Ault property and had a gay time of it frying hamburger patties and roasting hot dogs. There was no planned program, but time was taken to extend birthday congratulations to Mrs. Cecil Willet and Mrs. Russell Ault. Mrs. Joseph Sidellaker was an honor guest. The next regular Sunshine Sisters session will be held at the home of Mrs. James Simpson, Mayfield Avenue, on Wednesday afternoon, September 22, at 2 p.m.

Following the regular meeting of the Prayer-Bible Study Group of the Neighborhood Church last Thursday evening, Mrs. Walter Rebane gave a nice little supper party, honoring the 45th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Sidellaker. Places were set for six at the prettily laid table in the spacious dining room. Congratulatory cards and remembrances were presented to them.

Next Sunday, September 19, has been designated as Homecoming Day for the Neighborhood Bible School. Practically all the neighborhood has been off more or less on vacation trips this summer and it is hoped that by the end of this week all members of the school will have returned, willing and eager to embark on really constructive work for the fall and winter. The in spite of keeping up has been to find qualified substitute teachers.
