Mrs. Edgar Announces Opening Of Fall Term

Mrs. Florence Edgar, teacher piano, announced the opening of the fall term this week, on Monday, September 13. Lessons are given at Mrs. Edgar's home on Oakland Road.

When Christopher Columbus dis-covered America, he found no cows. This was not strange because there was none here. It was probably just as well, however, since there were no bulls here either.

The Earl Marks of Brookside have returned from their vacation in northern Michigan.

The youngsters who are to attend Our Lady of Sorrows School from our town lare still on vacation due to part of the school being unfinished, and they are the eavy of all the others who are back in the classroom.

of all the others who are back in the classroom. Our populace had some very wonderful vacations for themselves the past season. Mr. and Mrs. David Ryall had a two month motor trip through the West which was truly "one for the books". This lowly one's family got a primitive longing oit of its system this past summer when they erected a log cabin on some lake property. The Ciubs are commencing thefr meetings for the coming year. Edgewood Mothers Club met at Mrs. Kenneth Swarthout's home. The annual Mothers' Clubs' Bazaar will be held October's at the high school. Keep the date open for there will be lots of good things to buy.

A number of new citizens have come to our lown since our last writing. Mr. and Mrs. Keyes have a new son, the Wurtzbacher Jrs. have a new son, the Wurtzbacher Jrs. have a new daughter.
