COUPLE MARRIED AT CHURCH SERVICE

MR. AND MRS. ROY ROWLANDS

On Saturday evening, August 25, Roy Ann James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William James of Colgate Avenue, became the bride of Roy Rowlands, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rowlands of Middlebelt Road.

The double ring ceremony was performed by candlelight in the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church by the Rev. Carl H. Schultz. Music, selected by the bride, was "Because" and "I Love You Truly," sung by Mr. Adolt Hammond. accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Hammond.

The altar was adorned with palms, white gladioli and candles, making a beautiful background for a lovely bride.

For her wedding the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a heavy satin gown, with a marquisette yoke, full sleeves, tapering to a point over her hands. The full skirt was draped on either side of the front, displaying four dainty plaited marquisette ruffles, sweeping into a cathedral train. Seed pearls and bugle beads were used in flower design from her left shoulder down to the center of the draped hemline. She carried white gladioli and white roses, centered with an orchid. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and bugle beads.

The maid of honor was Miss Elsie Hrynok. She wore green faille taffeta with draped shoulder and marquisette neckline, fashioned with a full skirt and bubble back. Matching gauntlets and headpiece completed her costume. Her flowers were salmon gladioli.

Miss Beverly James, sister of the bride, and Miss Ethel Rowlands, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore pale pink faille gowns, with draped shoulders, full skirts and bustles, with blue flowers nestled into the bustle. Gauntlets and headpieces matched their dresses. They carried cascade bouquets of pink gladioli.

Robert H. Curried attended the groom as best man. The usher was William E. James, Jr., brother of the bride, and Earl R. Milburn.

Mrs. James chose a pale gray gown with pink beaded sleeves, and pink feathered hat. Mrs. Rowlands wore a royal blue gown and hat. Her corsage was white asters.

A reception for a hundred and fifty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents.

After a honeymoon to Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Rowlands returned to Farmington to make their home.

Summer Departs With Goose Pimples . . .

I'll betcha you'd better start lookin' over those "Red Flannels" 'cause it won't be long now! Ya' know sumpin'? We gotta 'nother load of those Western Steers this week — they're young, and should be tender. 'They ain't due nuthin' all summer only eat grass. Ya' can have any cut ya' want fer 59c a lb.

What could be nicer these cold days, than a cup of good hot coffee? Those Old Quakers have come through with a deal. Drip, or regular, 51c a lb!

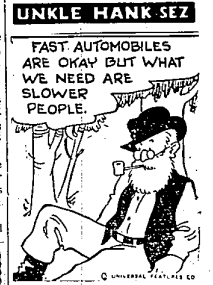

We just received more quart locker containers — better late than never.

If your home freezer is full, we'll be glad to give ya' storage by the month, or year.

Don't forget — this year we'll cure and smoke your pork, for a VERY SMALL FEE.

I probably missed a lot of things I wanted ta' tell ya' about — I'm goin' huntin' next week, and it's darned hard fer me to think of anything else. That's all, folks.
