INSPIRING TALK GIVEN BEFORE THE WOMAN'S CLUB

The Farmington Woman's Club met at the Salem Evangelical Church on Wednesday, October 8, at two o'clock in the afternoon. The new president, Mrs. Karl Ritter, presided. Silent prayer was offered for a departed member, Mrs. Zaida Wilber.

"The theme for the club this year is, 'The Club Women as an Influence for Good in the Neighborhood, the Community and the Country.'"

The program chairman, Mrs. Agnes Brown, introduced Rev. Carl Schultz, the speaker for the afternoon, who spoke on the "Home". He emphasized the fact that a woman is the dominating influence in the home, and stated she has more influence than church, state or school, and that the future of the nation is in the hands of mother. He closed with two poems, "Where is Mother?" and "Home Blessing". The talk was enjoyed by all present.

A beautifully appointed table had been arranged by the program committee, and with Mrs. Agnes Brown and Mrs. Betty Ritter pouring tea was served.

WALLED LAKE FARM BUREAU NAMES OFFICERS

The Wall Lake Farm Bureau Group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Murdock, to elect officers for the coming year. In Alden Green has been named chairman, with Jack Hetrick, vice chairman; Thelma Jones, secretary; treasurer; Vina Smart, recreation chairman; George Campbell, discussion leader; George and Elsie Gram, music directors and Bernadine Green, publicity chairman.

No regular discussion was held at this meeting due to the election. The October meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wedow.

After election was held, a social hour followed, and refreshments of sandwiches, coffee and cake were served.

The women of the Wall Lake Farm Bureau Group met on Wednesday, September 22, with Mrs. Elsie Gram, for an all day meeting to make cancer pads.
