ORCHARD METHODIST ARRANGES BAZAAR FOR DECEMBER 4
The Orchard Methodist Mission on 13 Mile Road and Greening Boulevard will hold a bazaar at the church on Saturday, December 4, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
A plate lunch will be served, as will also hot dogs, hamburgers, and coffee. There will be a large auction of Christmas gifts to choose from. It was announced. Ladies from the church have utilized Tuesdays of each week recently for the express purpose of making gifts to be sold at the bazaar, and as a result many items such as baked goods, canned goods and home-made candies will be available. A fish pond for all to use will also be a highlight of the affair, and the Youth Fellowship group will have a booth featuring their handiwork, which will be for sale.
On Sunday, December 5, church school service will start at 10:30 a.m., and a nursery class for small children will be made available to communicants. Youth Fellowship will be held at 8:30 p.m.

LOCALS
Little Miss Cheryl McConchle of Cedar Lake, Illinois, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. McConchle.
Glen Auten of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Auten of Dearborn were Sunday guests of their brother, Ralph Auten, and Mrs. Anna Reynolds Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Flaherty, Mr. and Mrs. James Bacon and children, and sister, Miss Frances Bacon, with a birthday party in honor of their father and nephew, Rusty Bacon, who celebrate their birthday together.
Walter Guenther, on Eleven Mile Road, is spending ten days with his family before returning to the Veterans Hospital at Dearborn for further treatments.
Mrs. Ethel Koss, formerly of Farmington Acres on Eight Mile Road, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Steiner of Fenton on Saturday, November 20, at Fenton. Mrs. Koss wore a street dress of white with matching hat and black accessories. The couple was attended by Mr. Steiner's son and daughter, also of Fenton. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steiner, where they received their guests, who presented them with many lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Halbritter, the son-in-law and daughter of the bride, also Mrs. Shirley Laubach, another daughter, Mrs. Lillian Johnson, a sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson and daughter, a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsden and Robert Brough from Detroit and Canada, attended the wedding reception. The best wishes of her friends in Farmington are given to Mr. and Mrs. Steiner.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bower on Farmington Road and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hinger, are to have Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Burkett in Milford. This is a very special day for Mr. Bower who has been confined to his bed for the past five months from an injury received in a tractor accident. This will be his first automobile ride away from home since the accident.
Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brown, on Grand River, entertained with a family dinner on Sunday. Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Hayes from Morrice, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Headlee and family, also of Morrice, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hayes and family of Corunna, Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes of Lansing and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayes of Romeo. This was truly a Thanksgiving dinner.

PIERSON PTA ANNOUNCES CHRISTMAS PARTY
The news the Pierson Parent Teachers Association has to bring this week is most pleasant. "Family Fun Night," sponsored by the group, students and parents, proved to be a tremendous success. The goal was attained, and the children will have their new library. Your complete cooperation made this possible, and the P.T.A. wishes to take this opportunity to express their sincere thanks for the conscientious efforts put forth.
You are invited to attend the post-regular meeting on Thursday, December 16, at 8:00 p.m. An evening of hilarity with a touch of "Season's Greetings" is promised. It'll be the Christmas party, with an exchange of gifts and a one act play will be put on — of course there will be refreshments, too.
Not too much is being announced about the play, but if you like family feuds over petty things, you'll enjoy seeing George Middleton and Margaret Duckingham, as Mr. and Mrs. argue it out over the breakfast table, while Marcel Hall, as the baby sits by almost contentedly.
The gift exchange is always fun. If you're a man and wish to participate in the exchange, bring a 50 cent item that would be suitable for another man. If a woman, bring a 50 cent woman's gift. Put it in a box, tie it with a ribbon and throw it in the grab bag.
The membership booth will be as it was the first time in two years that the parents and their children had been together.
Mr. and Mrs. David Edwards and their family dinner Sunday evening in honor of their mother, Mrs. James Parker, on her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Edwards was formerly Alice Parker and Mrs. Stone was Edith Parker.
Mrs. Hugh McIntyre was a Detroit caller on Saturday.
Mrs. Harry Brough and daughter, Alice, were guests of relatives in Detroit on Friday.
Billy Hamlin of Royal Oak, spent the week end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bagall, while his parents were at their hunting lodge near Lucerne.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Geistler, on Orchard Lake Road, have returned home from a two weeks visit with friends at Orlando, Florida.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Banfield and sons of Milford were Tuesday evening guests of their parents, the Hugh McIntyres.
Mr. and Mrs. Horace Durham were Sunday dinner guests of their son and daughter-in-law, the Forest Durhams, on Oakland.
Mr. and Mrs. David Edwards and children, on Parker, will spend Thanksgiving Day with Rev. and Mrs. Dean Parker at Montrose.
Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brown will be the guests of their mother, Mrs. Julia Brown, in Fenton, on Thanksgiving Day.
Mrs. Walter Leonard and family of Detroit will spend Thanksgiving Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Durham.
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Davis and son, Paul, will spend Thanksgiving with Mr. David's parents in Iowa, then motoring on to Florida for the winter months.
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bower on Farmington Road and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hinger, are to have Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Burkett in Milford. This is a very special day for Mr. Bower who has been confined to his bed for the past five months from an injury received in a tractor accident. This will be his first automobile ride away from home since the accident.
