

Christmas Mail

It will come back, that is, provided you make sure to place your return address on each Christmas card you mail.

However, if you decide anyhow to mail your Christmas cards with 1½-cent stamps — keep your tongue in your cheek and off that flap! Third-class mail must not be sealed and must not contain personal messages, although a handwritten signature is permitted. Only one effort is made to deliver it — and if the address is incorrect or incomplete, your cheerful but misdirected Christmas card will spend a lonely Yuletide in the Dead Letter Office.

MISS JEAN POWER MARRIED AT HOME CEREMONY

On Thanksgiving Day, November 25, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thayer, Miss Jean Power, daughter of Arthur Power and the late Mrs. Power, and Mr. John Rosenberg, of Denver, Colorado, son of Mrs. Agnes Rosenberg, were united in marriage. Rev. A. Stanley Stone of the First Methodist Church performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families of the young couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of white silk crepe, fashioned with a lace yoke and puff sleeves. She wore a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and a beautiful orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Eamon Rutledge of Franklin Hills were the attendants.

Immediately following the ceremony the party went to the Rutledge home, where a lovely dinner was served to 12 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg enjoyed a brief stay at Dearborn Inn, and left for Denver, Colorado, where they have an apartment ready to move into upon their arrival.

Prior to her marriage the bride was tendered several showers. She is a graduate of Farmington High School and has many friends here, though she has been in Denver for some time.

Mr. Rosenberg graduated from Denver High School and is now attending college, where he is studying commercial art, as well as being employed in one of Denver's largest departments stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Johnson were the bride-groom guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cavell in Northville on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gerda and family enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sauter in Detroit.

Obituaries

Mrs. Rosemond Tibbitts, 78, of 23730 Twelve Mile Road, Southfield Township, died at her residence on Saturday, November 27, after a long illness.

Mrs. Tibbitts was born November 9, 1870, in Franklin. She was the wife of the late Karl N. Tibbitts. For most of her life she had lived in the community near Farmington.

Surviving Mrs. Tibbitts are a daughter, Mrs. Ray Nelson of East Lansing; three sons, Duane of Birmingham, Artemus J. and Norwood E., both of Southfield Township; two brothers, Fred Van Every of Franklin and Ruben Van Every of Crystal River, Florida, and one sister, Mrs. Bertha Eisenlofer of Farmington. She also leaves four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock from the Bell Funeral Home in Birmingham, and burial was in Franklin Cemetery.

Ernest C. Hartz

Mr. Ernest C. Hartz, well known Farmington resident, passed away Wednesday morning, November 24, at the Country Convalescent Home, following an illness of ten weeks.

Mr. Hartz was formerly in the wholesale butter and egg business in Bay City until his retirement in 1931. He had lived in Farmington for the past 13 years. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and the Elks Lodge of Bay City.

Mr. Hartz resided at the Thayer Farm home until Saturday morning. Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday from the Hyatt Funeral Home in Bay City.

He is survived by his wife, Emma, one daughter, Mrs. Dolores Hamlin, of Farmington, and two sons, Harry of Farmington and Earl, of Jacksonville, Florida. He also leaves six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

HELEN SCHWEIZER IS BRIDE OF EVERETT HUNTER

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Schweizer of Tulane Avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen Frances, to Mr. Everett Ray Hunter, son of Mrs. Velda Hunter of Harlow Street, Detroit. The young couple were married at the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church in a double ring ceremony, by the Rev. Carl Schultz.

The bride wore a royal-blue suit, with winter white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and red rosebuds.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Viola Hunter, her sister-in-law, wore royal blue with winter pink accessories. Her flowers were gardenias, with pink rosebuds.

The groom was attended by his brother, Donald.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Oddfellows Hall on Inkster Road for about 200 relatives and friends. Out of town guests included Mr. Hunter's grandparents from Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin.

The young couple are now residing at 17325 McIntyre, in Redford, and they are planning a trip to New York in the near future.

WELL, THAT'S OVER!!

Now all we gotta worry about is what we're gonna give who? when we gonna have time to buy it? will it be OK? how many turkeys should we order for the next holiday? how we gonna git our inventory down? how are you? Anyhow, suppose by now you've got all the leavin's from Thanksgiving et up and gotta start over. We're gonna let you start out easy cause we're havin' a 39c sale jest like down town. There's some pork sausage at that price — there's some ring bologna at that price and here's the part you're lookin' fer — Wilson's certified picnic hams fer only 39c a lb. These are big hams but the boys will cut 'em up fer yuh any way you want and you can stick part of 'em in your locker at no additional charge. If you aint got no locker it'll keep a long time at home if you put it in a cool place — most anyplace will do cause after all it's December now and the weather aint so hot.

Remember how you folks all cried — and your dogs all cried — and it was a very unhappy situation when Mr. Conroy quit handlin' Vitality dog food. Well — we're proud we got the stuff in stock agin! The 5 lb. bags are 75c and the 25 lb. bags are $3.00. Give your dog the food he cries fer — Vitality — and watch him smile. Won't the people around town be surprised to see the dogs all wearin' big broad grins? Call the press! Call Winchell! Call Ripley!

We aint give yuh a buy on soap fer a long time and we got a tack room full of the stuff so here goes — Vel or Drest this week end fer 29c and anything else we got like Tide — Duz — Oxydol — Rinsol and all the rest fer 31c a box. Hey, that's cheap — aint it? And we're gonna git rid of our Spry and Crisco in the 1 lb. tins fer 39c per lb. Take a lot — take two — will two do??
