was considered quite a success. In spite of bad weather, four hundred and three children participated.

At the beginning, tea and cake was served by the hostesses, after which there was a devotional period and business and Sabbath sessions. Some exceptionally fine readings and sunshiny thoughts were contributed to the program.

Later came the distribution of gifts. The most interesting examples of need-jawne. Plans were made for the Sunshiny Sisters to aid in the Christmas activities in the Neighborhood Church.

The next meeting of the Sunshiny Sisters will be held in the Neighborhood Church at 1 p.m., Wednesday, December 29. At this time "Secret Sunshiny Sister" will be distributed.

Boys and girls of the Neighborhood Church section gathered in the little chapel Friday evening for their annual Grab-Bag.

With the youngsters were Mrs. Harry Lewis and Mrs. Forrest Ault, representing the mothers, and Arthur Muir, the fathers. An informal program, mostly musical, preceded the distribution. There was a contest for boys and another for girls. A price limit of 25¢ had been set for gifts.

All turned out to be well chosen and every child seemed satisfied. When "grabbing" was completed, delicious refreshments were passed, by way of refreshment, and greatly enjoyed by young and old.
