WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-M

Miss Joanne Shay, formerly of West Point Park but now of California has arrived for a visit in this locality. An aunt and uncle made the trip east with her and will also return with her.

Miss Phyllis Ault, Brentwood Avenue, was the dinner guest Sunday of the Clarke Bonars, near Northville.

Little Miss Carol Buckingham has been ill with tonsillitis most of the last week.

The elderly father of John Allen was taken seriously ill at his home on Mayfield Avenue the first of last week and Thursday evening was rushed to a Detroit hospital, where he now has pneumonia. His wife is also quite ill with arthritis.

Miss Joanne Craig of Detroit is spending the Christmas holidays with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Clardy.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ault, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson and children and Robert Hunter were all over Christmas house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Porter, near New London, O.

The younger Mr. Brow, with his wife and child, of Shadyside Avenue, spent the Christmas week end with relatives in Indiana.

Albert Hardy and son, from Wayne, were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rehahn Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Shirley, were Christmas Eve dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keyser in Huntington Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith, of Dearborn, were Christmas Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stange.

Mrs. Willet, from Detroit, spent Sunday with her son, Cecil Willet, and his family.

Mrs. James Simpson, of Mayfield Avenue, was the guest Sunday of her sister in Detroit.

Miss Ellen Lewis, of Hubbard Avenue, was reported on the sick list Sunday.

Tommy and Sandra Yeoman, of Parker Avenue, spent Christmas with their grandmother in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sandus of Hubbard Avenue, visited her mother in Detroit Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault and children, of Hubbard Avenue, were called on the Leo Woods family at Lakster Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault, Brentwood Avenue, entertained Christmas evening. Mrs. Ault's sisters, with their husbands and families being the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grundy gave a large family dinner party at their home on Hubbard Avenue on Christmas Day. A large group of relatives were thus entertained.

Miss Dorothy Aitama, of Shadyside Avenue, visited friends in Holland, Michigan, Christmas Day.

A Goodfellow, in Santa Claus attire, was making the rounds Friday distributing the makings of Christmas dinners to needy and underprivileged families of Livonia Township. The average box seemed to contain a pork loin roast, two loaves of bread, one pound of oleo, bag of potatoes, can of peas, boxes of navy beans, canned milk, coffee, head of cabbage, bunch of celery, bag of oranges, jar of canned fruit and bags of hard candy and mixed nuts. With such a variety any experienced housewife could contrive a meal festive enough for a king.

Most recipients of boxes seemed very grateful and many expressed a determination to stretch the supplies to the limit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCubbins, of Detroit, have now settled down for a winter's visit at Corpus Christi, Texas. Mrs. McCubbins is the former Mary Weigle, who, for many years, resided on Nortfolk Avenue, in West Point Park.

The Homer Coolmans sent Christmas cards from Kentucky. They expected to spend Christmas in Miami, Florida and planned to reach home again January 3rd.

Shoppers from this locality in Detroit Friday report that they never contended with so much traffic or fought their way through such huge crowds. Our population seems to have reverted to the old-time habit of last-minute Christmas buying.

Occupants moved last week from the cottage near the corner of Farmington Road and Norfolk.

The Ira Magners spent Christmas with friends and relatives in Detroit.

Neighborhood Church was packed to its capacity last Wednesday evening when the Bible School held its Christmas program and distribution of gifts. A program planned and carried out by the young folks of the Sunday School was produced. In a portrayal of the Bethlehem scene, Marcia Mendo took the part of Mary; Jimmy Muir was Joseph; Ellen Lewis and Nancy Varhol acted as angels; Robbie and Johnnie Imonen and Nelson Meade were shepherds; and Tommy Yeoman, Wallace Buckingham and Donald Kauranen were Wise Men. Costumes were for the most part, contrived by the children themselves. All the usual carols were sung during this portion of the service. Afterwards, appropriate readings were recited by Joanne Willet, Roble and Johnny Imonen and Nancy and Pauline Varhol. Richard Varhol recited in entirety "The Night Before Christmas" and in conclusion sang "White Christmas" as a solo. Just before treats and gifts were handed out, Judy Muir sang "Santa Claus is Coming to Town". Each person present received a treat of candy and fruit and in addition all members of the Bible School received a small, special gift.

Carolers representing the Neighborhood Bible School traveled over several streets last Thursday evening and were well received. Seven young men in their teens did the singing and have been much complimented on their vocal ability. After finishing, the carolers returned to the Neighborhood Church, where they were warmed and refreshed with hot cocoa and homemade cookies.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Langthorne entertained the latter's aunt, Dr. Mary Swan, of Chicago, and her father, Fred Swan, over the Christmas week end. Other house guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Brown of Connecticut. Mr. Brown is the new co-ordinator of curriculum in the Livonia Township schools.

billions are being spent to buy better tools, to make possible better American products!

Why? Because many persons are reluctant to invest in common stocks and securities when Federal personal income taxes may take up to 77 per cent of profit dividend. We find ourselves again at the crossroads. If industry cannot finance its own needs out of earnings, logs, the inevitable alternative is for the government to do it. Such is England's solution for economic security under a labor government. More state socialism is the choice of the U.A.W. We are well on the road already. Nationalization of industry is the new pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rogers and son enjoyed a Christmas dinner with their parents, the Harrison Johnstons.

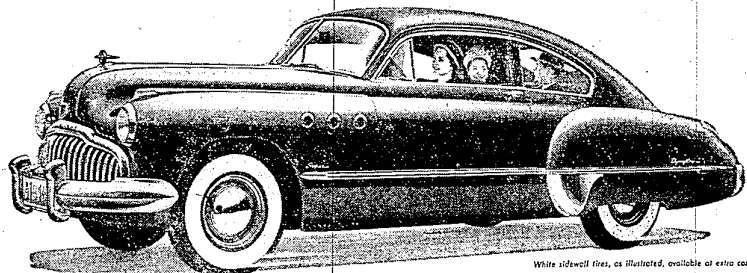

++ On the dawn of the New Year, we pause once again to express our best wishes for the coming twelvemonth.

Check the Price — check the Policy —
"Buick's the Buy!"

EVER since this '49 Buick made its bow, we've been telling you it's a buy.

We've invited you to match it—feature by feature and dollar for dollar—with anything else offered to you. You can start with the delivered prices shown here.

But don't stop with that. Check the policy under which Buicks are sold—and see for yourself that Buick means a better deal as well as a better buy!

Briefly, our Four-Square sales policy is this:

1. NO PRICE PADDING! We guarantee our prices to contain nothing but charges that were standard practice in figuring prewar delivered prices. You receive an itemized bill of sale showing all charges. And we display our prices in our showroom.

2. NO "LOADING" OF UNWANTED ACCESSORIES. All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered. We pledge ourselves to add no "extras" you do not want.

3. NO COMPULSORY TRADE-INS. Selling used cars is part of our business. Naturally we like to take cars in trade. But you do not have to sell your car to us! We will take your order, and deliver your car, without requiring a car in trade!

4. NO COLLUSION WITH "GRAY MARKETERS." We will not knowingly be party to a sale of Buick cars to any individual who operates in the "gray market." Our interest is entirely in delivering cars to bona fide customers.

In other words—you know exactly where you stand when you buy a Buick. What you get—what you pay—all the details of the deal open and aboveboard.

So we repeat: Check the price. Check the policy. Buick's the buy any way you want to look at it.

it's the New Year again!

Hello, World! Young Mr. 1949 once again broadcasts his tidings of a new day aborning to a worn and weary world. Another year; another and much brighter page!

For you and yours, we reiterate his hope that the New Year will prove better and more fruitful than the old. May new faith and new courage be yours as you turn a new page in the journey through life, and may all your wishes be fulfilled!
