St. Paul Presbyterian Church, 2745 Five Mile, Livonia, started a special mid-week Lenten program on Ash Wednesday.

Future programs, to be held every Wednesday evening, will include a supper at 8:30, followed by classes for children, youth and adults at 7:30.

Included are Bible and craft classes for grade-school children, Bible study for senior highs, youth groups for grades seven, eight and nine, a communicant's class for 10th graders and two classes for adults.

Dr. William Whitledge, pastor of the church, is teaching a class on the prophets of the Old Testament.

The Rev. William McCaughy, assistant pastor, teaches a class based on Eric Berne's book, "Games People Play."

BOB LAURENT is leader of the six-member Good News Circle, coming to Plymouth Central School for a gospel crusade at 7 p.m. each evening from Sunday, March 11, to Thursday, March 15. Four Plymouth churches — First Baptist, Calvary, Plymouth church of the Nazarene and Plymouth Wesleyan — are sponsoring the crusade. Other members of the evangelistic team that puts its message into music are Butch Hunt, Pam Murphy, Kathy Brawley, Kathy Behnan and Russ Chasteen. The school is located at 850 Church, Plymouth.

He has chosen for his topic "The Jerusalem Council As Found in the Book of Acts, Chapter 15." While interpreting the Bible passages, he will consider with simulated actions the election of a bishop of Jerusalem, the decision to send Paul to the Gentiles, the minimal requirements for Christianity and the method of evangelism to be used.
