It would be difficult to find a more devoted gardener than Mrs. Charles LaVoy, 23202 Floral. Her yard is in bloom — gorgeous throughout the spring, summer and fall. She's at work in her garden all varieties are in full bloom. The loveliness and perfection of her handsome roses is exquisite. The colors range from the darkest red, Black Beauty, to the palest pink, and the fragrance is delightful. If you want to see this striking display . . . Mrs. LaVoy takes great pride in showing her flowers to her friends and neighbors.

June is the month of graduations and we have three in Floral Park graduating from Farmington High school this week. Jim Van Every, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Van Every, 22716 Floral. He will spend the summer working at Smith-Tupper Lumber Company; he intends to go on to college this fall.

Leitha Reubritius Speaks Vows

In the presence of 80 guests, Leitha Reubritius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reubritius of Walled Lake, became Mrs. Carl York. Mr. York is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William York of Kentucky.

The couple was married Saturday in the Walled Lake Baptist Church. Dr. Warren P. Behan conducted the double-ring ceremony at 4 p.m.

The bride, dressed in white net and satin, was given in marriage by her father. She carried a bouquet of white baby chrysanthemums, and white roses. The maid of honor, sister of the bride, was dressed in dotted Swiss and carried red roses.

George Goodrich and Mrs. Wilson played for Miss Marjory Larry, who sang "Blessed Jesus" in the song "Sweet Mystery of Life."

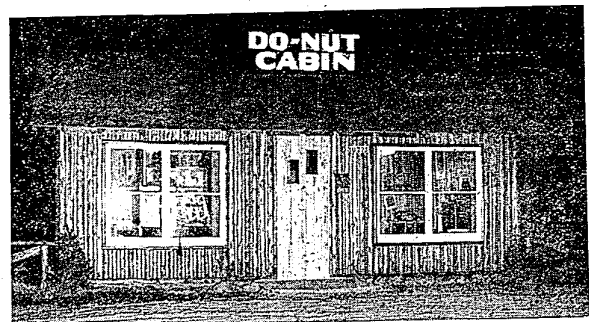

Best man was Herman Reubritius, the bride's brother. Ushers were Frank Keely and David Reubritius.

Carl York is employed at Northville. Leitha is a graduate of Walled Lake High School and has attended Taylor University in Indiana. She is now attending Ypsilanti Normal and will graduate next year.

The bride's mother wore a white and green silk dress, with a carnation corsage. The church was decorated with mock orange and peonies.

A reception was held in the church parlors after the wedding. Some of those who served include Eva Flourbocker, Monnadine Alphen and Mrs. Charles Rose. The couple left for a wedding trip to northern Michigan.
