ALMA ROSE WADENSTORER

Miss Alma Rose Wadenstorer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frazer Wadenstorer, 26570 Drake Road, left July 29 to enter boot training as a WAVE at Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Illinois.

Miss Wadenstorer, a 1946 graduate of Farmington High School, studied modeling under Patricia Stevens in Detroit, and then turned to secretarial work for the law firm of Hulet and Phenev, where she has been employed for the past year.

After a 10-week training period, she will have a two-week leave, after which she will receive further instruction and training. During the 10-week "boot" period, she will be allowed to see only members of her family, and then only at the end of the third and sixth weeks.

Miss Wadenstorer's address as a recruit will be:
 S. R. 230-1S-71 USN
 Bldg. 711, Recruit Training (WV)
 U.S.N.T.C. Company 6-49
 Great Lakes, Illinois.

Girl Scouts Camp At Irish Hills

Troop 2 Girl Scouts of Clarenceville and leaders, Mrs. Jean Van Zant, Mrs. Mary Knight and Mrs. Beth Russell spent a week in the Group Building at Hayes Park in the Irish Hills.

The girls prepared and served all the meals. The noon-day meal was cooked and served out of doors. Swimming, hiking, dance, games and story telling were the week's activities.

Interesting facts of wild life and plant life were offered the girls through observation and by a conservation talk by Mr. Ernest V. Bloom, Group Camp Supervisor in Michigan. He displayed stuffed birds and animals such as the black bear, weasel, owl, and beaver, explaining the habits of each.

Included in his talk was the story of the Irish Hills; how they were first settled by farmers, and how the trail leading to the west became the present paved highway 112.

Charlotte Shaw Now Mrs. Mansfield

Miss Charlotte Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Shaw, 19454 Farmington Road, was married July 23 to Mr. David Mansfield, of 1601 Kentfield, Mr. Mansfield is the son of John Mansfield.

Miss Shaw has been employed at the A&P Tea Company. She is a 1946 graduate of Farmington High School. The groom, employed at the DeSoto Motor Company, is a 1946 graduate of Farmington High School. The marriage was performed at 8 p.m. by Rev. D. Toepel, formerly of the Livonia Methodist Church, at the Farmington Methodist Church. Shirley Shaw, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Fred Braymen, friend of the groom, served as best man. Bridesmaid was Charlene Ramsey, of Detroit. Groomsman was George Ramsey of Detroit, and ushers were Glenn Shaw and James Sugar.

The bride's white gown had a lace paneled front and train. A headpiece of orange blossoms and her length veil. She carried a bouquet of roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Shirley Shaw, was dressed in pale blue tulle. She carried a bouquet of pink aster. Blue aster set off the yellow tulle dress of the bridesmaid, Charlotte Ramsey.

Eva Jo Mansfield, the groom's sister, performed as flower girl. She was dressed in pale green or gandy. A white blouse and aqua trousers were the costume for the ringbearer, James Shaw, the bride's brother. Joan Kramer sang "Because," and "I Love You Truly," while organist Duane Schautler, former pupil of the bride's mother, played "Always," "Dreamer," "Oh Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Shaw chose a forest green dress with satin trim. Mrs. Mansfield wore aqua chiffon with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of viburnum lilies.

Following the double-ring ceremony, a reception honoring the bride was held at the Shaw home on Farmington Road. Ice cream, cake, and sandwiches were the refreshments served by Margaret Shaw, Catherine Shaw, Marjorie Rumble, Maxine Murray and Lottie Parker, cousins of the bride.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield are spending their wedding trip in northern Michigan. Following their return, they will be at home to their friends in their residence on Karl Street in Farmington.

SUSAN WARNER SLOCUM

Miss Slocum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Slocum of Farmington, was married Saturday to William Hayward Klingbeil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Klingbeil of Leckowor Bozeler, Detroit.

The candlelight ceremony, held at 8:30 p.m., was performed at the Farmington Methodist Church. Rev. Sidney D. Eva officiated. Following the church service, a reception was held at the Pine Lake Country Club.

The couple will honeymoon in Nantucket, and reside later in Ann Arbor.

POULTRY GOOD BUY NOW FOR EATING OR FREEZING

One of the best buys at the meat counter these days is poultry which has the advantage of being adaptable to summer meals and cooking either indoors or out-of-doors. Cook in a variety of ways and serve it hot or cold - it will please your family, suggests Roberta Hersey, extension foods specialist at Michigan State College.

If you have a home freezer or locker storage you will want to consider freezing some white broilers, roasters and fryers as plentiful. Only high quality birds should be used because storage does not improve quality.

Proper killing and bleeding are essential in obtaining the best possible appearance. Dry pick or "slack scald" (125 to 130 degrees Fahrenheit - bird immersed 20 to 50 seconds) to remove the feathers. Remove pin feathers and singe to remove hair-like feathers.

Cool, if possible, overnight at 32 to 34 degrees. If chilling room is not available, draw immediately and raise in water at room temperature to remove blood and wash in ice water.

Under most conditions of storage for home use the halving of the bird, or cutting up in pieces for frying, is more desirable since less space is required for storage. This simplifies the drawing procedure. Remove the head and neck, oil sac and shanks. Cut from the neck to the rear along the backbone. Remove entrails. Rollers may be halved by cutting along the keel.

Chicken for frying should be disjointed after final washing. When packing halves of chicken, one half is placed skin down, on the table. Two pieces of waterproof paper are placed on the half and the other half placed on top. Wrap and freeze as for other meats.

Lorayne Koenig To Be Married
 Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Koenig, 28507 Eight Mile Road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Lorayne, to James D. Cook. Lorayne is a 1946 graduate of Clarenceville High School. She is currently employed by the Eastern Michigan Grochard Supply Co. Mr. Cook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Cook, 29160 Milburn Street.

When planning summer meals either for the out-of-doors or indoors don't overlook the possibility of poultry. It adapts itself well to summer menus and is a very good meat buy, reports Roberta Hersey, extension home economist at Michigan State College.

W.C.T.U. Speaker Scores Race Bets
 The Farmington W.C.T.U. met Tuesday, July 26, for a public luncheon at the home of Mrs. Belle Williams. The dinner was served beneath the trees on the lawn. Devotions were given by Rev. Woodrow Woolley of Rosegate Gardens, who also spoke instructively on parimutuel betting.

Rev. Woolley gave the history of the proposed bill to ban parimutuel betting. According to Rev. Woolley, the bill was sent to the State Fair Committee in the House of Representatives. Rep. Bert Storey, of Ionia County, was chairman of the committee. The bill was not reported back to the floor by vote, meeting defeat in the committee by a vote.

Rev. Woolley also discussed the proposed Michigan Racing Association track at Schoolcraft and Midland Roads, stating erection of the track would bring professional gamblers and undesirables to the community.

Mrs. Julia Hutton, Michigan W.C.T.U. corresponding secretary, also spoke on sins and needs of organization members.

Also at the meeting, the names of the two teen age girls elected to attend the Youth Temperance Council camp near Fenton, were announced. They are June Turner and Myrna Hurkett.

The regular meeting of the Farmington W.C.T.U. will be held Tuesday, August 23.
