Clarenceville P.T.A. To Hear Dr. Dalton

Frank D. Dalton, lecturer in vocational education for the University of Michigan, will discuss "Vocational Education in School Programs" at the meeting of the Clarenceville P.T.A. when it meets November 15 at the high school.

Dr. Dalton's talk will be especially enlightening, as Clarenceville is offering a shop course for the first time this year.

Clarenceville vocational groups will present entertainment for the evening.

SQUARE DANCE

The Ways and Means Committee of the Bond School P. T. A., under the chairmanship of Roy Larch, are planning a hard times square dance at Bloomfield Town Hall, Friday, November 25.

Engagement Announced

CATHERINE ZARZYCKI

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zarzycki, of 28084 Halsted Road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Catherine, to Harold William Miller, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Miller of 46411 Grand River.

Miss Zarzycki is a 1946 graduate of Farmington High School, and has been employed by Nash-Kelvinator and the Grand Ten Drive In. The couple plan to be wed in early spring.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 6, consisting of 20 intermediate Girl Scouts and their leaders, left Farmington at 10 a.m. November 1 for a conducted tour through the Detroit News building.

After this inspection, the girls had hot dogs and left for Farmington, arriving about 1:30 p.m.

Approximately 75 Girl Scouts attended the 5:30 Mass at Our Lady of Sorrows Church on Girl Scout Sunday, October 20.

Mary Watson Married Oct. 15

Miss Mary Watson, of Winston Avenue, Detroit, became the bride October 15 of Mr. William H. Look, Jr., at the Faith Lutheran Church on Outer Drive and Northwestern.

The couple were married at 7 p.m. in a double-ring ceremony. Miss Watson has been employed by the Vickers Corporation on Oakman. The groom is in business with his father at East Tawas, where they operate an auto agency.

Mrs. Marge McConnell was maid of honor at the ceremony, and bridesmaids were Ruth Watson of Farmington and Sally Cummings.

Groom's attendants were Howard and Fred Look and Hugh K. Watson, Jr., and John Campbell of Milford.

Following the ceremony, the couple were honored at a reception held in the Farmington American Legion Home. They left immediately for a trip to Niagara Falls.

On their return, they have made their home on Sawyer Street in East Tawas.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin, the yoke of which was studded with rhinestones and seed pearls. Her head-piece was a pillbox hat studded with seed pearls. A finger-tip veil and white satin muffs completed her costume.

Bridesmaids were matching dresses of aqua satin and carried muffs with American Beauty roses. Aqua plumes made up their headpieces.

The junior bridesmaid wore red satin, and carried a muff with yellow roses.

Little Gloria Hensley of Floral Park was flower girl, and Dottie Campbell was ring bearer.

Mothers' Club To Hear Speech Teacher

"Defective Speech" will be the topic of the speaker, Mrs. William F. Lancaster, when she addresses the Methodist Mothers' Club Wednesday, November 16, in the home of Mrs. Walker Coon.

Mrs. Lancaster, local speech teacher, was Illinois State Speech Director for the W.C.T.U. for two years. The Lancaster School of Speech was founded in Alton, Illinois, in 1902. Over the years she has instructed hundreds of pupils in college, high school and grade school.

Honorees for the evening will be Mrs. Rolfe Smith, Mrs. Mahlon Bradley, Mrs. George Douglas, and Mrs. John Osterling. Mrs. Herbert Gibbs, Jr., is to be contacted for transportation.

The annual Methodist Church Bazaar will be held on Friday, November 18. The Mothers' Club will have a candy booth, to which all members have been asked to donate candy. Members will contact Mrs. Jack Reinke before or during the meeting so that she can arrange the booth.

ROOM MOTHERS MEET

Noble-William Grace room mothers, a newly-formed group, will meet at the home of Mrs. Virginia Berlin, 2958 West 10 Mile, November 16 at 1 p.m. A dessert luncheon will be served. Mrs. Charles Neldrett will address the group. Room mothers' duties will be clarified.

Mrs. Harry Brundie visited at the home of her son in Detroit last week.

Dorothy Aittama, Max Holland Wed

MR. AND MRS. MAX S. HOLLAND

Miss Dorothy Quick Aittama, of 20306 Shadyside, Farmington, became the bride October 8 of Mr. Max S. Holland, of Detroit. The couple were married in the Salem Evangelical Church by Rev. C. H. Schultz.

Miss Aittama is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Aittama. She attended Redford High School and has been employed by the Ford Motor Company.

The couple were married in a double-ring ceremony at 7 p.m. Following the wedding, they were honored at a reception in the Veterans Memorial Home in Northville.

Substitute Sweet Potatoes For Pumpkin In Pie

Sweet potatoes make a good pie filling that some people prefer to pumpkin. This is a good way to use left-over sweet potatoes advises Martha Ehlers, home economist at Michigan State College. Substitute the potato for the pumpkin in any good pie recipe. The addition of a little butter improves it, and the sweet potato works up better if the sugar is mixed with it.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ferris of Gill Road entertained with a dinner on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hinman of Northville, who were the Godparents of their daughter, Chloé Ann.

Expect Crowd At P.T.A. Festival

With a large variety of booths to attract customers, the Noble P.T.A. is expecting a large crowd for its Fall Festival, to be held November 12 at the new school on Middlebelt at 10 Mile Road.

At the rummage booth alone, there are five ladies coats, lots of dresses, children's clothes, and some shoes. All the articles have been pressed and repaired to make desirable merchandise.

Lunch will consist of home-baked beans, home-baked ham sandwiches, coffee, cake, hot dogs, potato chips, home-made pies, and home-made cakes. Guests won't have to stand, either.

The auction is to take place at 8 p.m.

Mrs. George Ferris, who is visiting her relatives in England, writes that the food situation is truly an experience for anyone accustomed to the generous supply of food in our own country, where there is plenty of everything for everyone.
