Don't Borrow - ... Buy Your Own

"A man, too stingy to subscribe to the home-town paper, sent his little boy to borrow a copy from his neighbor. In haste, the boy ran over a stand of bees and, in 10 minutes, he looked like a wart summer squash. His father ran to his assistance and, failing to notice the barbed wire fence, tore and ruined a $9 pair of pants. "The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence, got into the field and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the commotion, his wife ran out, upset a four-gallon churn of cream into a basket of little chickens, drowning the entire batch.

"The baby, being left alone, crawled through the cream into the parlor, ruining a brand new $50 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter eloped with the hired man, the dog broke up 11 setting hens and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four shirts on the clothes line.

"Moral: don't borrow your neighbor's paper; it's too risky."
