SUNSHINE LADY
SAYS SHUT-INS
NEED GREETINGS

JIJNORS DEFEAT
SENIORS DECEMBER 7 IN CAGE TILT

From time to time beautiful orchids have arrived at the Farmington post office to be sent to the folks out west who are ill.

These flowers are a small part of the cheer sent out each morning by the Sunshine Express, a radio program on WKMH, Dearborn, at 8:15.

New names are always welcomed by Miss Kay McKay, the program's director. Once a week she honors a good neighbor and awards an orchid to whoever it is.

Now, Miss McKay and Terri-Wade, the program director, plan that will make some one very happy. They are asking donations so that Mrs. Mabel Goodwin, who for the past five years has been a shut-in at the Leland Tuberculosis Sanitarium at Ypsilanti, may have a television set by Christmas. Contributors can send funds to "Mille", c/o WKMH, Dearborn.

On November 11, one of the daily papers carried a front page story about a woman who was very ill. Well, little Marjorie Asperton, 212 Summit Avenue, River Rouge, Michigan, is no better. Last week she was taken to University Hospital in Ann Arbor. She is on the 6th floor of the East Wing.

A shower of cards could do much good for this little one so far from her home. Please drop off an extra Christmas card, signed at the McWilliams home on 12 Mile Road, just west of Orchard Lake Road. Or give it to Rev.
Fred Fisher so it may be passed on to a lonely old person during the Christmas holidays.

front seat while his wife withdraws it from the back seat.
