

West Farmington

By MRS. SARAH KNAPP

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schuler left Saturday for a trip to Sandusky, Ohio, where they visited the latter's only uncle left on his father's side. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Merritt, The Schulers returned Sunday evening by way of Toledo.

Several accidents occurred last week end due to the icy roads. Six cars were involved in one accident at the corner of Maple and Drake Roads.

Another accident happened Saturday when Edward Dickie came down the hill on Walnut Lake Road with his truck loaded with milk. A car was across the road and Mr. Dickie had to take to the ditch rather than hit the car. The truck tipped over. Mr. Dickie succeeded in getting out of the cab without being injured, but the good fresh Saturday's milk was unloaded at the wrong place.

Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell were in an auto accident Wednesday at the intersection of 13 Mile Road and Orchard Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heliker and family attended a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hanfield of Wilcox in honor of Edward Young.

Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Night were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cairns.

Dickie Cairns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cairns, played several selections on his accordion at the West Farmington Farm Bureau Christmas party held at the Methodist church Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cox attended a reception in honor of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Eastbrook of South Dakota, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young of Brighton, Saturday evening. The Coxes also entertained the Eastbrooks at dinner Thursday evening.

The young married women in West Farmington went out for a girls' night last Wednesday. It was Hubby night that evening. Mrs. Richard Heliker, Mrs. William Knapp, Mrs. Alden Green, Mrs. Roland Green, Mrs. Fred Lee, Mrs. Irvin Wink, and Mrs. Harold See enjoyed the evening away from their families.

James Westley Wiley, Jr., 32730 Grand River, died Saturday, December 10 at 4:30 p.m. at his residence. Mr. Wiley was born October 5, 1887 in Erverson, Pennsylvania. Mr. Wiley was associated with the Farmington Lumber Company during the past ten years.

He is survived by his wife, Bessie, a son, James W. Wiley III of St. Petersburg, Florida, and two brothers; Charles S. of Scottsdale, Pennsylvania, and W. S. Wiley of State College, Pennsylvania. Four sisters, Mrs. James Zimmer, Carrie May Wiley, Mrs. Harry Newcomer and Margaret Wiley, all of State College, Pennsylvania, also survive.

Mr. Wiley was a member of F. and A. M. No. 51 of Orono, and Abigail Chapter No. 206, O.E.S., also at Orono, Michigan.

Prayer service was held from the Spencer J. Henney Funeral Home at 1 p.m. Monday, conducted by Rev. A. Stanley Stone. Funeral services will be held at Scottsdale, Pennsylvania, with interment at Scottsdale Cemetery.

Like Canasta, the game of Santa Claus has a lot of variations. Even if you're not a wide-eyed youngster it can be just about as much fun being Mama or Daddy—or, best of all they say, Grandma and Grandpa.

If you don't fit into any of these categories you can still get a big bang with just one trip to a local store where Santa is on hand. Stand sort of outside where you can get a good view of the faces in the lineup. It's a good bet you will have the time of your life and can go home grinning.

It's pretty easy to track down Santa these days but finding Mrs. Santa is another thing. We have it on good authority though, that she's going to be at Clarenceville High School tonight at 7:30. She'll be decked out in red satin, too, her best costume for this very special occasion. It's the Girl Scouts Christmas party in the new gym. They'll all be there, from Brownies

Conservation Crews End Summer Lake Survey

Four conservation department lake inventory crews have finished their summer work with a total of 69 lakes inventoried in 11 northern counties. Purpose of the studies was to discover new trout lakes, to determine the growth rate of fish, to locate for removal stunted fish populations, to locate spots which need aquatic vegetation and places where brush shelters are necessary.

Lakes inventoried were in Alger, Baraga, Delta, Gogebic, Houghton, Iron, Lapeer, Marquette, Menominee, Ontonagon, Schoolcraft, Alcona, Barry, Benzie, Cheboygan, Emmet, Montcalm, Newaygo, Ogemaw and Oshtemo counties.

A fish collecting crew has also terminated summer activities after making studies of lakes in Barry, Cheboygan, Houghton, Livingston, Montcalm, Newaygo, St. Joseph, Washtenaw, and Wexford counties.

The crews are now commencing winter lake mapping, another phase of fisheries research.
