CONCRETE

gives beauty, livability and firesafety at low annual cost

With concrete your new home can be any architectural style; color or size you want—cottage or mansion—adapted to your family's requirements.

Concrete walls and subfloors and a firesafe roof assure genuine protection against storms, termites and decay. You'll have year-round comfort, too, in your concrete house—cool dry rooms in summer, low heating bills in winter. You'll save money in upkeep, because of the sturdy way a concrete house is built—repair bills are few.

You'll love the quiet, safe, proof, 60¢/sq. ft. concrete subfloors—the ideal base for rugs, carpets, linoleum or any floor covering you like.

Our block are tested and meet the quality requirements of all standard specifications. Ask us for information on how to get a concrete house to fit your requirements. No obligation. Telephone or write—

Edna L. Fischer Wed Saturday

Edna L. Fischer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Fischer of 2104 Rensselaire, became the bride January 21 of Bernard Keiffer, of Garden City, at a nuptial High Mass performed at St. Agatha's Church by Father Reed.

Miss Fischer wore a heavy white satin gown with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves with pointed cuffs, and a long train. Her headpiece was a high crown with pearls and a finger-clip veil with lace. She carried white roses and ribbons. For her traveling dress she chose a grey suit with black accessories.

Margaret Ann Fischer was the maid of honor at the 9 a.m. ceremony. She was gowned in heavy pink satin and carried pale yellow roses with yellow ribbons.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fischer chose a wine silk dress with black accessories. Her carriage was made of yellow roses. Mrs. Keiffer's gown was green silk with black accessories and pink ribbons.

Following the wedding, a reception at the Inkster Road 1, O. O. F. Hall honored the couple. 400 guests attended the 11 a.m. breakfast of food and eggs, doughnuts and coffee.

Mrs. LaForge, Mesdemoiselle and Leonard Monette, and Mrs. LaMieux served.
