Faculty - Parents Split Games

The "Faculty Faculty" trimmed the "Fair, Fat and Forties" last Saturday night in the women's game of the evening at Farmington High School gym.

One of the PTA officials was heard to remark that the mothers who made up the FF team did very well when one considered their condition and shape. The FF team romped to a 21 to 11 victory and then proved their stamina by following it with a 21 to 14 game.

The fathers' "Limping Five" won over men of the faculty "Lalapaikoozas" in a basketball game which featured such characters as "Tarzan" and a number of fetching sun suits, according to an observer.

Entertainment between the two games was under the direction of Mr. J. W. Henderson and Mr. Lloyd Smith, Jr. The High School Band opened the program with a rendition of "Loyalty". "Pat Sowers" sax solo was followed by the Junior Falconaires who presented "Little Brown Church in the Vale" and "Dear Land of Home".

Dennis Cannara's clarinet solo preceded "The Night is Young" and "Because" by the Girls Glee Club. The Band rendered "Belle of the Ball", "Umpa-pa" and "The Spinning Wheel". The latter was complete with a real spinning wheel, operated by Marilyn Gregor.

The Falconaires presented "Winter Song" as a wood sawing skit. This was followed by the Barber Shop quartette with "Strolling Through the Park" and "You Tell Me Your Dream".

The betwixt-game entertainment was concluded with "Fight for Farmington" by the Band and vocalists.

A refreshment concession at the games was under the direction of Mrs. Robert Casell.
