

Gloria Ann Fenton Weds William McClay

Gloria Ann Fenton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sukowski of Waldron Street, became Mrs. William N. McClay at a double ring ceremony performed January 14.

Mr. McClay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. McClay of Plymouth. He is employed by the Mohawk Lumber Company.

Rev. Carl Schultz performed the 1:30 p.m. wedding at the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church. Mrs. Betty Stevenson, the bride's aunt, attended her. Arthur Gotts was best man at the ceremony.

The bride, a 1949 graduate of Farmington High School, wore a white lace and net gown. She carried white roses which matched the flowers in her white net head-dress.

Following the ceremony, a reception at the groom's home on Six Mile Road honored the couple, who will live in Detroit.

WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT TELEPHONE FARM. 1481-M

(January 26, 1950)

Herman Schult left Friday for Florida where he will have employment for a time.

Mrs. William Greene of Sunny-side Avenue, was a visitor in Herman Kefler Hospital Wednesday. Mrs. Ed Stuech and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Melvin, were calling at University Hospital, Ann Arbor, Friday.

George Houtz of Farmington Road has been quite ill. Representatives of the Wayne County library for the blind were calling in West Point Park last Thursday. Their headquarters are on Trumaine Avenue in Detroit.

A birthday dinner, honoring the 16th birthday of Lois, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elva Barnes, was held at the Barnes residence on Farmington Road, Thursday evening.

Miss Donna Posner was a Detroit visitor Saturday. Al Hardy and his youngest son spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Hardy's mother, Mrs. Christina Rehahn.

Mrs. William Barrett of Irving Avenue entertained at card Tuesday evening. A dainty tea apron was the prize for each table. Proceeds were to help out with the organ fund for the Livonia Methodist Church.

Open house was held at the Imogene home on Hubbard Avenue Thursday evening. The occasion was the 84th birthday of Mrs. Imogene's father, Mr. Gamble.

Mrs. E. W. Stange was confined to her home ill with a severe cold several days last week.

Mrs. Dave Kober and Freda Ault were Detroit visitors Friday. After a visit with relatives on Six Mile Road, Mrs. Van Auken, formerly of Shady-side Avenue, has returned to her present home in California.

Mrs. Van Auken was very ill for several days of her stay in Michigan and so had not the opportunity to call on old neighbors and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Altman were in attendance at a function at the G. A. R. building in Detroit last Tuesday evening.

In honor of the birthday of their eldest daughter, Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Owen entertained at their home on Farmington Road Wednesday evening. Guests were for the most part friends from Pier-ton School.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts and their two little daughters, Beth and Mary Lynn, were up from Monroe Saturday to attend a little get-together of relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson on Clarita. Later they were overnight guests of Mrs. M. E. Ault at Mayfield, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter and their daughter, Mary Margaret, were also guests of Mrs. Ault.

The Stanges spent Sunday afternoon with Detroit relatives. Eastern Star ladies of this vicinity planned to attend a special service at St. Paul's Cathedral Sunday.

A little sanding on some of our unpaved roads last week helped traffic conditions considerably.

Arnold Jennings, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Loris Jennings, was named on the sick list this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roberts of Mayfield Avenue have again been visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Padit in Monroe.

Miss Guardaman Wayne Ault was again up from Cleveland to spend the week end with relatives and friends. A knee fracture which he received in a traffic accident while visiting here a few weeks ago continues to give him trouble but is yielding to treatment.

"Incorporation" still seems to be the chief subject of discussion at most of the little gatherings—church, school, or neighborhood. Many meetings are being held with one object in mind—to give people an opportunity to ask questions and learn what the situation really is. One such meeting is being held for women in the Neighborhood Church next Monday afternoon.

This particular district has many problems peculiar and different from other parts of the township and in many ways has been a forgotten section. The resident of either end will now learn what it is all about.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sandou and their daughter, Shirley, of Hubbard Avenue, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Smith

Debaters Appear At Exchange Club

Farmington High School's crack debating teams visited the Exchange Club at their luncheon meeting last Thursday, where they debated the question "Should the President of the United States be elected by the direct vote of the People?"

Mayor Delos Hamlin, program chairman, brought the debaters to the club. The affirmative team, Myrna Hurkett and Charles Tulip, faced Farmington's undefeated champions for the state championship—James Whitman and Richard Schreiber. Lloyd Smith directed the debates.

Each attendant contributing one valentine. Home-made Valentines are preferred. For the sake of variety and to conserve coal it is planned to have most of the Sunshine meetings at homes instead of in the church between now and the Easter season.

Baby Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cooke on Hugo Avenue, has made a splendid recovery from the flu which attacked him last week.

Art Professor Guest At PTA "Founders' Day"

Miss Alma Goetsch, Professor of Art at Michigan State College, East Lansing, will be after-dinner speaker at the Founders Day meeting of the Farmington PTA on February 12. The dinner will be held in the Farmington gym at 7:00 p.m.

Miss Goetsch teaches Art Education at MSC in addition to Art Craft classes. Her watercolor paintings have been shown in many national art shows. Mr. Clayton Timmons, mechanical drawing instructor at Farmington High School, will have on display work done in his classes during the past semester. There will be a musical program at dinner.

Tickets for the banquet are available from any officer of the PTA or any room mother or by contacting Mrs. C. E. Downing, chairman, at Mayfair 63940.

February 12 is the 53rd anniversary of the founding of the PTA.

Safest and easiest stairs for climbing are 10 inches wide with risers seven and one-half inches high. A hand rail, or two, adds to the safety of dangerous stairs, reminds Olevia Meyer, extension specialist at MSC.
