Randall, nearly nine, wants a dog, so his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gault, of 2803 List decided to go to the matter scientifically. Since a dog is a boy's best friend they decided that a trip to the dog show at the Coleman in Detroit Sunday would help Randy decide just what kind of a "best pal" he wanted. "I never believed there were so many different species!" Mrs. Gault exclaimed. But, on the way home the truth was revealed. Dog-own-er-be was disappointed for he hadn't seen one greyhound. And that was just the kind of a dog he had decided he wanted!

There's a little boy giving orders at the Willis Dix residence, 21130 Middlebelt, now too. A brand new little boy, weighing 21 pounds, 2 1/2 ounces, last Saturday night, March 4. Signed "Gregory Clinton" he made his entrance at Pontiac General Hospital. New grand-son, Mrs. George Gildemeister of Farmington is helping, now that he's home—until proud mounds, the former Sally Gildemeister, takes over.

Teacher new ambition! A stage curtain for the new gym and, working cooperatively, the various mothers' clubs of this vicinity hope to make their wish come true. It is a benefit party and coming up soon. Our community certainly doesn't lack for recreational facilities now. All we need is a new volume of baby-sitters.

Also along the social angle, we understand that our Civic Association is planning lots of good times as well as the community improvements they hope to help push during the coming year. Neighborhood social units with picnics and other family-good-times are in the blueprints. A mighty pleasant way to help this business of friendly neighborhood cooperation along.

New officers and board members of the association are working hard and have held several meetings during the past weeks. Floyd Somrill, newly-elected president, has put his vice-president, Sam Turner, to work with a new membership committee. Treasurer Vernon Hawley is heading a group which will improve the constitution. Board members sketching new plans are: George Nabstoll on citizenship and patriotism; John Spaulding, programs; Dean Eckert, public relations; and Fred Wilkinson, budget.

Our very active P.T.A. has an election of new officers coming on, too. March 21 is the date, so put a big mark on your calendar. The choice of officers for any organization can make or break its success for an entire year. Co-thing, but at the roots of every active group there are a few people who have to assume a great deal of responsibility. Choosing them in the first place is yours!

Mrs. Thelma Berry of 20910 Collingham was hostess to the Girl Scout Association mothers Monday evening, and they continued plans for their banquet which has been postponed to May 11. With the effects of the coal strike in mind, 17 of the women had gathered at the home of the president, Mrs. Clara Hawley of 21125 Middlebelt, last Thursday morning for a yummy breakfast. They decided then to move their banquet date ahead to warmer weather, from its former March 16 date. Famed Detroit poet Anne Campbell, had written a special poem in honor of their 25th anniversary March 12, and the local Scouts have been excitedly waiting to hear it read at their banquet.

Mrs. A. L. Sholley has returned to her home in Minneapolis after a pleasant month's vacation at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Pierce VanCamp of 25700 Brookside. She was honored last week with two luncheons given in her honor by her daughter. March will be a busy time for the VanCamps before opening their frozen custard business again next month at Telegraph and Schoolcraft Roads. This will be their fourth year in this highly tasty venture. (How about bringing that business closer home?)

There's an extra kitten at the Guy Buzzo residence at 28500 List. About six weeks old, he shivered through a snow storm to their door last week, and since they already have two cats well-established in their family, Mr. and Mrs. Buzzo hope that his owners will find him soon. He's an angora kitty, and is he yours?

Reference to our "Lost Cowboy" last week again brought a flood of kitten offers to our door. So, we feel it necessary this week to admit that a home without a cat didn't suit us at all. And, to a small, second-edition of our beautiful grey kitty has taken over. He's just

W. C. T. U. Holds Meeting March 2

The Farmington Woman's Christian Temperance Union's meeting postponed February 23 because of the icy roads, was held March 2 at the home of Mrs. Dora Jones.

Mrs. Katherine Shaw led in group singing and gave devotionals based on the 4th chapter of John.

The program was built around Frances Willard because February 17 was her birthday. Mrs. Germaine Curriston read some of her favorite scripture. Other members read "Her Lengthening Shadow", and short life sketches.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, March 28, at the home of Mrs. Curriston on Wakeneden Avenue.
