died about its merits. Admission will be free.

Mr. Bean is eminently qualified to deal with his subject. He holds two degrees in electrical engineering from the University of Wisconsin. He served nine years in the Milwaukee engineering office and five years as city manager of Escanaba, Michigan, before coming to Pontiac in 1945 to accept his present post.

Other experience includes two years on the board of trustees of the Michigan Municipal League, membership on the Michigan Housing Study Commission and, in 1944, on the Michigan State Tax Study Commission.

His talents are recognized widely. On occasion he has been called to eastern cities to help solve such problems as public transportation and municipal taxation.
