By this time, we've all found out there is no Santa Claus around to pay our income taxes, and we are happy if we still have enough left to buy a quart of milk.

Yes, the Irish have had their day, and spring has been officially ushered in. Now for the sulphur and molasses — it either kills or cures your spring fever, so might be a good thing for my "flu".

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Banfield entertained Mr. and Mrs. Steven Davis, Jr., of Hemlock, Michigan, on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Walker of Purlingbrook entertained several guests Sunday morning. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Doug Creighton, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schaufel, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Spickett, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hocking arrived home Thursday morning on the American Airlines from Honolulu, where they spent a wonderful two months vacation with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Davis.

Mrs. and Mrs. Merle Schuffert of Parkville spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johns of Detroit.

Mr. Henry South was taken to St. Carmel Hospital on Saturday because of a heart ailment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Banfield had his nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Banfield and son, Don, from Holly, as their guests on Friday night.

Buy grapefruits that are heavy for their size to insure thin skins and lots of juice. Grapefruit that is pointed on the stem and is likely to be thick-skinned, particularly if the skin is rough and wrinkled, say Michigan State College home economists.

Mrs. Roland Green and daughters Edith and Alice are sick with the measles.

Newlyweds Return From Florida

MRS. H. J. ZARISH

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Zarish returned from their wedding trip to Miami, Florida, last week. The couple were married February 18 in Zion Lutheran Church, Port Huron, Michigan.

Mrs. Zarish is the former Miss Phyllis J. Ender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ender of Port Hope. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zarish of Farmington.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her sister, Miss Phyllis J. Ender, was maid of honor and another sister, Marilyn, was bridesmaid. Little Arlene and Lillian Hachov, both nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

The groom was attended by William J. Kerracher, of Detroit. Meritt Ender, brother of the bride, and Russell Blakey of Cass City were ushers.

Some 450 guests attended the wedding and the reception, held that evening at the American Legion Hall in Harbor Beach.

Let rhubarb give your wintertime meals a flavor lift. Forced rhubarb is on the market well ahead of the garden season and will prove a real spring tonic for everyday menus. Michigan produces quantities of this crop, advises Roberta Hersey, Michigan State College home economist.

Methodist Mothers Plan Tea June 3

The Mothers Club of the Farmington Methodist Church will hold their Spring Tea on Saturday, June 3. It was announced last week. The tea will be held in the church parson.

At the tea, Mrs. Harmon Gillen will present a lecture and an exhibit of dolls. Mrs. Richard Gault and Mrs. Henry Trombley are co-chairmen of the event.
