1950 ACP FUNDS INCREASED FOR OAKLAND COUNTY

A greater amount of financial assistance will be available this year to Oakland County farmers who participate in the 1950 Agricultural Conservation Program by carrying out approved soil and water conservation practices.

Walter R. Cook, chairman of the Oakland County PMA Committee, said that $79,856 has been allocated to Oakland County for the 1950 ACP program and compared with $67,000 allocated at the beginning of the 1949 program.

This will make it possible, Mr. Cook said, for more farmers to participate in the conservation program, and in most cases, for individual assistance payments to be more substantial this year. The rate of payments vary with the individual conservation practice carried out but for the most part, the payment made represents half or less of the actual cost of carrying out the practice, excluding the farmer's labor.

Farmers who have not already filled out and signed their 1950 ACP farm plan are reminded that in order to be eligible to participate in the 1950 program they must sign a farm plan on or before March 31, according to Mr. Cook.

Corn alone is not good pig feed. W. N. McMillen, MSC swine specialist, says a pound protein supplement will save four to five pounds of corn.

Novi Farm Bureau Discusses Brannan Plan

The South Novi Farm Bureau held a discussion group meeting March 21 at the new Novi Town Hall.

Speaker at the meeting was D. B. Varner, of Michigan State College. The Brannan farm plan was the topic of discussion. The Brannan Plan, providing for commodity price supports, brought many members and guests to the meeting. An open discussion was held after Mr. Varner's talk.
