Mrs. Roy Dent, from Detroit, was the Mother's Day dinner guest of Mrs. George Sandau and family on Hubbard Avenue, and stayed over to accompany Mrs. Sandau and her daughters, Esther Mae and Shirley, to the Mother and Daughter banquet held in the Livonia Methodist Church last Monday evening.

Mrs. Forrest Ault of Hubbard Avenue is recuperating from one of those very severe colds which keep making the rounds.

Sadie Dickerson of Parker Avenue was a measles victim last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wagner were Mother's Day dinner guests of their daughter, Mrs. McMillan and family in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ray from Virginia were among the Mother's Day dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bolyard on Hubbard Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCubbins of Detroit have returned from Florida, where they spent the winter. Mrs. McCubbins is the former Mary Weigle, who resided on Norfolk Avenue.

Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson of Clarita Avenue is convalescing from pneumonia.

Mrs. Willet from Detroit was the Mother's Day dinner guest of her son, Cecil Willet, and his family, on Mayfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brugman from Norway and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ackerson and children, from Detroit, were all calling Mother's Day on Mrs. James Simpson, mother of Mrs. Brugman and Mrs. Ackerson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Imonen of Hubbard Avenue visited Mr. Imonen's mother in Detroit Mother's Day evening.

Rickey, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, Shady Side Avenue, was very ill this last week.

Mrs. Christina Rehahn, accompanied by her son, Al Hardy from Garden City, was visiting in Detroit Wednesday.

Mrs. O. R. Ault returned home Wednesday evening from a week's stay in Indiana where she attended a nephew's funeral and visited a few days with her mother, Mrs. Sheets, near Ft. Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bolyard have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter, Marian Rose, and Hugh Robert Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Young. Vows will be exchanged in the Farmington Methodist Church on Friday evening, June 2, at 4 p.m., with a reception following at the home of the bride's brother, Charles Bolyard on Parker Avenue.

As the result of stepping on a rusty nail, Mrs. Richard Stevens of Hubbard Avenue has been painfully handicapped this last week.

Telanus shots were administered.

Richard and Tedy Stevens of Hubbard Avenue spent Mother's Day week end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens near Hillsdale.

Seventy-one children from the three lower grades of Farmington School visited Greenfield Village Wednesday. The experience was of definite educational value to the youngsters.

Mrs. Homer Coolman and Mrs. V. Reddy were two of the ladies assisting in caring for the little ones taking the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Padot from Monroe were Mother's Day dinner guests of Mrs. Padot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roberts on Mayfield Avenue.

The Robert Hunters from Detroit were calling on Mr. Hunter's mother, Mrs. M. E. Ault, on Mother's Day.

Shirley and Frankie Sandau of Hubbard Avenue were both ill this last week.

Mrs. Ernest Tallman of Mayfield Avenue spent Thursday in Detroit. Our Girl Scouts are arranging a Talent Show to be held in the Livonia Methodist Church Friday evening, the 25th. Proceeds will help defray expenses of outdoor summer activities.

Mrs. Max Holland from Detroit was the Thursday guest of her daughter, Mrs. John Altama. Mrs. Altama and her daughters spent Wednesday together in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon of Breton Road were visiting with the Wilbur Koons, near Saline, on Monday evening. On Wednesday, Mrs. Koons called on old neighbors in this vicinity.

Leonard Broquet from near Northville was visiting with his father, F. Broquet, on Norfolk Avenue, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Gould, who has been very ill at her home on Farmington Road, is now up and around again.

Mrs. Gould was visited recently by Mrs. Emil Teschka from Detroit.

Mrs. Brown and her son, Harry, of Shady Side Avenue, left Friday for a visit with relatives near Allegan.

Mrs. E. W. Stange is spending Saturday with her daughter, Mrs. William Griffith in Detroit.

Folks of the West Point Park area are very proud of the fact that Bill Verhol, a Bentley High School student and a resident of our own neighborhood, is one of the young men selected to attend Boy's State at Lansing next month. The boys will have 10 days to "talk things over" at the capitol.

Bobby Wyman of Shady Side Avenue is not yet two and a half years old, but like many modern young men, must have been born with a sixth sense for driving. Last Friday he climbed into his uncle's car, parked on the family drive, and stepped on something. The car promptly started, but fortunately came to a standstill near a neighbor's fence. No one was hurt, but the adventurous young driver is now sweating under new restrictions on his personal liberty.

The Youth Fellowship group of the Livonia Methodist Church had a roller skating party Thursday night.

Sunshine Sisters held their regular meeting in the Neighborhood Church last Wednesday afternoon. After the devotional service, the usual program was made different by the presentation from the ladies present of helpful household hints. Some useful ideas were brought out. Mrs. V. Reddy described in an interesting manner a visit to Greenfield Village she had made that day with Pierson School children.

It was announced that Sunshine Sisters, cooperating with the Neighborhood Bible School, will hold an annual Mother and Daughter banquet within a few days following the close of school. Because of certain conditions and circumstances, this group always holds their Mother and Daughter banquet in June rather than May. Some discussion regarding the affair may be held at the next Sunshine meeting, to be held in the Neighborhood Church on Wednesday afternoon, May 31. An invitation to hold a Sunshine picnic on the Reddy property was received from Mrs. Reddy and accepted. A date will be decided upon later.
