A group consisting of eight ladies from the neighborhood gathered at the home of Mrs. George Welsh on Mayfield Avenue last Monday evening to hold in celebration her 70th birthday. Lunch arrived with the visitors and all thoroughly enjoyed the hours of friendly fellowship. The honored lady received numerous cards and gifts.

His sister and family, from Redford, were Tuesday night guests of E. W. Stange and his family. Early in the week, Rudge Brouquet from Detroit called on his father, F. Brouquet, on Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ault, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Graham, their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Walker, also Wayne Ault, Wayne and Gail Graham, made their trip to Canada and back last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault and children, and Mrs. M. E. Ault, were participants Sunday in a large potluck dinner held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Six Mile Road. The occasion honored Mrs. George Dague, married daughter of the Wilsons, who had come from Indiana to visit her parents.

Relatives tendered a stork shower to Mrs. Norman Bolyard at her home on Parker Avenue Sunday afternoon.

Judy, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bolyard, has been having mumps.

Mrs. Edna Vance, Mrs. E. W. Stange and Miss Frances Stange were among the local people attending the Music Festival at the Olympia in Detroit June 4. Mrs. Vance's daughter, Alice Jane, took part as a pianist in both the afternoon and evening sessions of the performance.

Mrs. George Welsh of Mayfield Avenue has been ill in bed for several days.

Sharon Butler of Hubbard Avenue was a measles victim last week. Pierson School Brownies had a picnic last Saturday. Wet weather drove them indoors into the recreation room of the Community Methodist Church, but a good time was had by all nevertheless.

Ina Mae Tallman, Mayfield Avenue, was an overnight guest last Wednesday of friends in Brightmoor.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts and their two little daughters were up from Monroe Saturday to visit relatives in this locality.

While at a game of ball Sunday, eight-year-old Pauline Varhol was struck in the forehead by a bat. She was rushed to Receiving Hospital where several stitches were taken.

Critical illness of a sister called Mrs. Charles Fark of Shadydale Avenue to southern Ohio several days ago.

Mrs. Ira Wagner was visiting in Detroit Friday and Saturday.

Carol and Davy Buckingham, Pierson School pupils on Mayfield Avenue, are both named on the sick list.

Critical illness of his father called Charles Hoff of Mayfield Avenue to Detroit Friday.

Mrs. Robert Diehle was visiting in Detroit Thursday.

On Mayfield Avenue near Eight Mile Road, several men of the neighborhood are in the habit of getting together every evening for a few games of horse shoe. One man 84 years old is reputed to be the champion.

Freda Ault was at Harper Hospital Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. James Simpson of Mayfield Avenue was literally showered with congratulatory cards and pretty gifts June 6, her birthday. A daughter, Mrs. Cecil Willet, tendered her mother a lovely birthday dinner.

Clinton Ault was calling in Northville Saturday morning.

Mrs. J. C. Dunaman of Farmington Road had an old friend, Mrs. Conch from Detroit, as her house guest several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. "Red" Kramer and baby daughter were calling Sunday at the home of Mrs. Kramer's adoptive parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunaman. The Kramers have just returned from a western vacation trip, during which they were guests of relatives in Oregon. They also had a little visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Mercer of Hawthorne, California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Guilmette, lately of Washington, D.C., accompanied the Kramers on the trip west and remained there as guests of Mrs. Guilmette's parents, the Mercers. In the near future, the Guilmettes expect to take up residence in Hawaii.

Mrs. Jack Dunaman, Farmington Road, recently spent a week end with her brother in Hastings, Michigan. Mrs. Dunaman's mother, Mrs. Miller, who usually resides with her, is spending the summer in Hastings.

Mrs. James Simpson and Mrs. Armstrong attended a luncheon and missionary program at Neighborhood House in Dearborn last Thursday.

Mr. E. C. Imosen and his mother in law, Mrs. Lillie Gamble, drove to St. Louis, Michigan, last Monday. Mrs. Gamble remained to be the guest of relatives for a few weeks. Last Thursday at the McCabe law, Goldie and Rex Walker, their house-guests, spent last week end with relatives in northern Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Slevin and children of Akron, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Byers and daughter from near Lansing, were all week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson of Clarita Avenue.

Bentley High School will hold its first commencement on Thursday, June 15 at 8 p.m. 95 young men and women are to receive diplomas. Exercises will be held in the gymnasium now under construction. Instead of an address by some prominent speaker, a pageant "The Way of Brotherhood" will be presented.

Production of clean eggs should be one of the big aims of successful poultrymen, say Michigan State College poultry specialists. Eggs that get dirty and have to be cleaned lose quality more rapidly than eggs which are produced clean.
