Elizabeth Hunt, David Ernst Wed In Ceremony At St. Joseph's Church

Elizabeth Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hunt of 33709 Oakland Avenue, became the bride Saturday afternoon of David Scribner Ernst, son of the DeGay Ernsts of Calvin Avenue, Grand Rapids. The couple spoke their vows before Rev. William C. Hamm at St. Joseph's Episcopal Church in Detroit.

Miss Hunt attended Michigan State College and has been employed by the Chevrolet Material Department in the GM building. The bridegroom, a 1950 graduate of Michigan State, is employed at Josten's in Grand Rapids.

White flowers, gladioli, stock and peonies, decorated the church for the two p.m. ceremony. "Because" and light classical selections were rendered at the organ by Mr. William Green.

The bride appeared in a gown of chantilly lace over white satin, with a fitted bodice buttoning to the neck and lace collar. The gown's skirt was of nylon net with panels of lace through the net. The gown had a medium circular train.

Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet style brim of gathered illusion with cap of matching lace. White roses in a semi-cascade bouquet were chosen for the bride flowers.

Maid of honor Marjorie Jean Hunt, sister of the bride, wore yellow marquisette over tulle. She carried white daisies and yellow roses with ivy. Jane Hunt, another sister, Eleanor Bailey of Huntington Woods, and Gayle Mathias of Clawson were bridesmaids, gowned in aqua, blue, and peach marquisette over tulle respectively. All wore open crown horsehair picture hats with velvet ribbons of contrasting colors. They carried daisies and ivy.

Robert Atwood Ernst, brother of the groom, was best man, and Richard Ernst, John Hunt, Jr., John Stekette, Richard Shuster, and James Goedhal, the last three from Grand Rapids, were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a hyacinth-blue floor length crepe dress, with embroidered cord trim on the peplum. Navy shoes and ivory straw hat set off her costume, worn with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Ernst selected a crepe dress also; hers was of pink with white accessories and pink straw hat. Her corsage was of green stibidum orchids.

Following the 2 p.m. wedding, a reception at the Women's City Club in Detroit honored the bride. Mrs.

Richard Ernst, Mrs. John Hunt, Jr., Miss Helen Kuhn and Miss Rosemary Roberts served the guests beverages, hors d'oeuvres, and pastries. Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Hahan and Carolyn and Philip attended, as well as guests from Forest Hills, Long Island.

The couple left to spend a wedding trip in Northern Michigan. For her traveling costume, the new Mrs. Ernst chose an aqua suit with brown and white accessories and a white rose corsage.

Engagement Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Simon of 27400 Ten Mile Road have announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Patricia, to Carl R. Markham, Jr., Torpedoman Third Class aboard the USS Sea Leopard, Norfolk, Virginia.

Dorothy is a graduate of Farmington High School class of 1949. Mr. Markham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Markham of Greening Boulevard.

Robert Tussenden To Take Bride

Mr. and Mrs. James Malone of Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter Josephine Patricia to Robert Lynn Tussenden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tussenden of Farmington.

The wedding will take place at the home of the groom's parents on Friday, June 23, at 7:00 p.m.

Virginia Workman Wed To Carl Page

Miss Virginia Claire Workman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Workman of 21531 Clougham, was wed June 10 to Carl R. Page of Detroit at a double ring ceremony solemnized by Rev. Victor Halbroth at Grace Lutheran Church.

Miss Workman is a 1948 graduate of Clarenceville High School and has been employed by a Detroit department store. The groom, son of Mr. Carl Page of 14437 Terry, Detroit, is a senior at Cornell University, New York, where he is studying languages.

Miss LeVerna Garchow was maid of honor at the 4 p.m. ceremony, and Ellen Wallace and Rosalie Hansen were bridesmaids. David Page, the groom's brother, was best man, and ushers' duties were performed by Jack Gerwill and Frank Woodward, of Detroit.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown fashioned over a hoop skirt, with white marquisette at the neckline. A fingertip veil of illusion was draped from the bride's satin tiara. The tiara was decorated with tiny pearls which matched the bride's eight strand necklace, a gift of the groom. Miss Workman carried a white orchid on a white ribbon having satin streamers tied with stephanotis.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids were gowned in blue, yellow and green marquisette, and head-dresses of fresh flower arrangements. They carried bouquets to match the headpiece arrangements.

The bride's mother chose a sheer ice green afternoon dress with white accessories. She wore a corsage of tallman roses.

The altar was decorated with white flower arrangements and tall white tapered for the wedding, at which Miss Garchow sang "I Love Thee" and the "Lord's Prayer". Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church.

The bride chose a sheer navy blue dress with white dots and white accessories for her wedding trip to northern Michigan. Upon their return, the couple will reside at 14437 Terry pending the groom's return to Cornell this fall.
