To the Editor:

Now that school vacation is with us, how about a nice little editorial about parents who just allow their children to run loose and annoy the neighbors, chasing across the neighbors' property and causing damage and sassing said neighbors when reprimanded?

I personally am greatly annoyed and inconvenienced by a group of boys age 9 to 13 who get together and barge all over, wherever their fancy takes them. Their folks just turn them loose. No supervision or knowledge of what they actually are doing. Maybe they promise their parents one thing and then go right ahead and do the opposite.

Anyway, it definitely is a parent's job to know what they are up to at all times and not leave them to their own devices. You might start out: "Do you know what your child is doing every hour of the day? It is YOUR JOB to know."

Mr. Editor:

I have had the pleasure of the paper ever since Mr. Bloomer was in charge of it. It has been my pleasure a good while, so will enclose $2.00 for another year.
