

The case of "The MOPEY MOUSE"

A. RODENT

CONROY'S MARKET

"You know, I live a pretty cheery life, always getting dried up, awful tasting cheese. But, I like it that way."

"Today, the lady of the house slips a piece of cheese in my favorite trap that she bought at Conroy's Market. I can't eat the stuff. It's too rich for my blood."

"Me, I'm used to crumbly stuff, but this cheese is the real McCoy. It's real crumbly, sharp and delicious, strictly for high class eating."

"I thought she brought home my usual cheese because it was in such a big package but I heard her tell the old man that she bought so much because it was such a bargain. Now, I'm not going to have anything to eat for days. My stomach can't take it."

VERDICT: This cheese recommended for lovers of fine quality only.

CONCLUSION: Nice need not worry. There won't be enough left over for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tallman and granddaughter, Ina Mae, left last Tuesday for several days' visit in northern Michigan.

The Stanges spent last Sunday afternoon with Mr. Stange's niece in Ferndale.

The Stevens boys of Hubbard Avenue are spending another week-end with their grandparents near Hillsdale. Two of her grandsons, the Hardy boys from Norwayne, were doing some cherry picking and visiting at the home of Mrs. Christena Rehahn last Saturday.

Whooping cough is just now rather prevalent. Shots seem very successful in lessening the severity. Old and young seem to suffer and it is believed ringing weeds rather than whooping cough germs are frequently the cause.

The little Smith girls, of Hubbard Avenue, are among the whooping cough convalescents.

Mrs. McMillan, from the mid-west, is the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. Reddy.

Mrs. Maynard Horton, of Shady-side Avenue, entertained friends from California part of last week, attending the zoo with them Wednesday.

The Fishers, of Mayfield Avenue, visited Maskaing recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Druggan and children, Eddie and Larry, from Norwayne, were guests last Sunday of Mrs. Druggan's mother, Mrs. James Simpson of Mayfield Avenue.

Beverly Rohlinger and her cousin, Darrell Middlewood, have returned home from a vacation to Mexico. They accompanied their aunt, Miss Esther Middlewood and two of her friends.

Terry McMillan, from Detroit, was with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wagner, most of last week. Mrs. Homer Coolman and Mrs. Russell Ault returned home Monday night from a three week stay at Columbia City, Indiana, where they were attending their mother, Mrs. Jacob Sheets. Mrs. Sheets, who has been ill for some time, has left the hospital.

Mrs. Marvin Addis and Mrs. M. Ault left last Wednesday to be overnight guests of Mrs. Ault's daughter, Mrs. Johnson Porter, near New London, Ohio. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Porter and her two children, Carol Anne and John, who will be Mrs. Ault's house guest for a week. On the trip back to Livonia the group stopped to call on Mrs. Tom Roberts in Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sidelink left Friday evening to be week end guests of Mrs. Sidelink's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lupo, in Flint.

As the result of a heavy register falling upon one foot, Mrs. Stanley Chavay is badly crippled up at her home on Mayfield Avenue. Plasterers are now at work in the Chavay house, which during the last few weeks, has been remodeled.

Mrs. Marietta Wyman was a Detroit visitor last Monday.

The Campbell house on Eight Mile Road near Hubbard is reported sold to Farmington folks who plan to occupy it.

The Melvins, of Parker Avenue, were off on a fishing trip last week end. Many families are enjoying a little relaxation this way.

Karen Grundy, of Hubbard Avenue, unfortunately spent her birthday at Highland Park Hospital. She was visited by her mother, Mrs. Leslie Grundy. Karen has been ill with rheumatic fever.

L. B. Gilbert, from Detroit, was calling on Shady-side Avenue friends Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Galloway, from Garden City, spent Wednesday evening with their aunt, Mrs. Christena Rehahn.

Mrs. George W. Sandau and her three younger children, from Hubbard Avenue, with her mother, Mrs. Roy Dent, spent last Tuesday with a cousin, Mrs. Carl Lindquist in Ferndale.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dent, from Detroit, were Friday guests of their daughter, Mrs. George W. Sandau and her family. Mr. Dent has been ill and this was his first visit since late May. Mrs. Dent was a recent victim of an accidental cut from broken glass and is still somewhat handicapped. Several stitches were taken to close the wound.

The Sandau family are all spending the week end with friends in Tecumseh, Michigan. Merwyn, the eldest son, will remain for a few weeks' visit.

Mrs. Harold Slevin, with her daughter, Sue Ellen, and Mrs. Darrell Ward, from Akron, Ohio, arrived Friday to be birthday guests of their cousin, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson on Clarita and visit other relatives over the week end.

Complaint is made that barking dogs have lately made a nightmare of rest hours.

The Browns, of Bretmeyer Street, visited relatives in Detroit last Sunday.

Miss Eola Mae Brown, of Detroit, is the house guest of her cousin, Miss Charlotte Brown, of Bretmeyer Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hardy, from Norwayne, were Friday night guests of Mr. Hardy's mother, Mrs. Christena Rehahn, on Mayfield. They report that their son, Al, Jr., often a visitor in this neighborhood, is in Harper Hospital. Mrs. Hardy, Sr., who recently underwent a major operation, has now regained much of her former health. Clinton Ault has been quite ill with neuritis.

Cub Scouts aided Jimmy Muir, of Shady-side Avenue, to celebrate his birthday last Monday evening.

Robert Judd, from Detroit, called this Saturday morning at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Stange. Mrs. Stange returned with him to be an overnight guest of her daughter and family.

Friends dropped in at her Hubbard Avenue residence and aided Mrs. Opal Imeson in celebrating her birthday Wednesday evening.

Thursday evening, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson gave a "fish fry" dinner party at her home on Clarita Avenue. Mrs. Johnson Porter and her two children were out of town guests.

As the result of being accidentally struck by a flying golf ball, as he caddied on the golf course last Thursday, Jim Schult, of Shady-side Avenue, is handicapped with a badly injured ankle.

Representatives of the Wayne County Library for the Blind were calling in this vicinity Wednesday afternoon and Thursday evening.

A combination birthday celebration and stock shower was given for Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson at her home on Clarita Avenue last Friday evening. Close friends and relatives participated while Mrs. Johnson was being honor guest at a birthday dinner given by her mother, Mrs. Emerson Ault. The Johnson home was made ready with appropriate decorations. Returning from the dinner she was promptly showered with two sets of gifts. Refreshments were served later.

Where are the boys? At the Boys' and Girls' meeting held in the Neighborhood Church Friday evening a full dozen girls, but no boys, appeared. Time was taken from the usual program for Brownies to give a demonstration of what they had learned at Day Camp this week. A large doll contrived from paper bags and attractively dressed in colored paper, was greatly admired. The "Oh Johnnies" call that the girls practiced and demonstrated must have been heard for several blocks around. The children of this group, which meets in the Neighborhood Church every Friday night at 7 p.m., are about to take up a study of the hymn, "Under His Wings".

Neighborhood Sunshine Sisters held a potluck picnic last Wednesday on the Reddy property of Farmington Road near Shady-side Avenue. Twenty-five women and young folk were in attendance.

Dinner was served at one o'clock and consisted of hot food, such as rolls, chicken with dressing, baked beans, succatash, etc., as well as salads, jello and iced tea. Children particularly were delighted to find a fire with available supplies of wafers, buns and marshmallows. After all were filled, devotional exercises were held and a program followed. Feature of it all was a talk by William Varhol, describing his recent stay at Boys' State in Lansing. All thoroughly enjoyed his interesting and instructive speech. Afterward, some especially good short articles from current periodicals were read by various women of the group. Certain business matters were taken care of. It was decided that at the next meeting, which will be held in the Neighborhood Church on July 26, all should endeavor to bring reading matter, stationery, fancy work materials to be made up, etc. All is to be packed in a box and sent to a young shut-in in northern Michigan.

Honor guest at the Sunshine picnic was Grandma McMillan, from the mid-west, who is visiting Michigan relatives. Mrs. McMillan is 81 years young and on display was her 13th crocheted tablecloth upon which she is now working.

Remember that odor is the best guide in buying melons. Color, plumpness, odor and freedom from bruising should be considered in buying all fruits. Size may affect the price of fruit but does not always affect its eating quality.
