Scouts Earn Church Awards

FARMINGTON
Christa Conner and Sue Sisson, both members of Farmington's Cadette Girl Scout Troop 84 and Nardin Park United Methodist Church, were awarded alpha-omega religious awards at Nardin Park's observance of Scout Sunday.

They were the first Troop 84 members to earn the award. Alpha-Omega is similar to the Boy Scout's God and country award and requires more than 40 hours of church service in addition to other requirements.

Christa is in her eighth year as a scout and is senior patrol leader. Sue is in her sixth year and has served the troop as scribe for the past two years. Both girls also received their first class, girl scouting's highest award, this year.
