

Honeymoon Is Trip To Hawaii

A honeymoon trip to the Hawaiian Islands followed the recent wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick

Golembiewski of Hillcrest Avenue, Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Othmar J. Lenze II, of Merritt Avenue, Westland, are the couple's parents.

The wedding took place in St. Genevieve Catholic Church in Livonia with the Rev. Ferdinand A. Wolber officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's heirloom wedding gown fashioned of French lace with satin inserts. It featured a cathedral-length train.

A tiara of French lace flowers held her candlelight veil, and she carried a cascade of miniature roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Elizabeth Munday of Livonia, as maid of honor, wore a pale pink velveteen trimmed with candlelight lace. Pink carnations and baby's breath were in her bouquet.

The bridesmaids were Ann Lenze of Westland, sister of the bridegroom, Charlene Koback of Milan and Patricia Koback of Port Huron, cousins of the bride, and Joan

MRS. JAMES DAVID REED (Ailsa Anne Gelazin)

Reed-Gelazin Vows Spoken

Ailsa Anne Gelazin and James G. Reed were united in marriage in a ceremony March 16 in the First United Methodist Church of Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gelazin of Fleming Avenue, Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. James G. Reed of Briar Hill Avenue, also Farmington, are parents of the couple.

The Rev. John Howell officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza with a cape collar of chantilly lace and matching lace at the hemline. Her cathedral veil also was edged with lace and she carried a bouquet of white gladiolus, snowdrift mums and pink roses.

Mrs. Jacqueling Jones of Grand Blanc, as matron of honor, wore a pink flowered chiffon gown with cape sleeves and carried a nosegay of old rose gladiolus, lavender mums and miniature carnations.

The bridesmaids, in similar gowns, were Susan Fisher of Romulus and Cheryl Reed of Farmington, both sisters of the bridegroom, and Laurie McArthur of Farmington.

Michael Welling of Farmington was best man. The ushers were Greg Gelazin of Farmington, the bride's brother, John Fisher of Romulus, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, and Dennis Musselman of Detroit.

Mrs. Gelazin wore a pale pink silk gown and Mrs. Reed was in pale green tulle.

After greeting 200 guests in the Meadowbrook Country Club reception, the couple left for a honeymoon in Canada. They will live in Howell.

The new Mrs. Reed graduated from Farmington High School in 1970 and from Ferris State College in 1972. She is employed as a dental assistant. Her husband graduated from Farmington High in 1968 and is a construction worker.

JOHNNY WETS HIS BED... JOHNNY

When children discover that a playmate wets his bed, the result can be a psychological problem. The entire family can be affected. The cost and work of taking care of a bedwetting child can cause friction and irritability among parents.

It is quite possible that your child will eventually outgrow bedwetting, but what happens until that time can be a disgrace to his family. Statistics prove that a bedwetting child achieves below his real ability in school, and the child is embarrassed and ashamed.

But, now, bedwetting, when not caused by organic defect or disease, can be ended. Safely. Permanently. Our method is endorsed by many doctors. Read their state-of-the-art brochure: "Is There A Solution?" Also read what other people say who have had the same problem. Send this coupon for your free copy. No cost or obligation.
