4 Scouts Earn Award

FARMINGTON

Four girls from Farmington's Girl Scout Troop 84 received their first class, girl scouting's highest award, at an area wide ceremony in Harrison High auditorium.

The award went to Christa Conner, Karen Passiak, Sue Sisson and Patty Tobin.

Christa has been a scout eight years and is senior patrol leader this year. She was Indianapolis winner of the Dolly Derby contest in 1971.

Karen has been a patrol leader for the past two years and active in scouting for eight years.

Sue is the troop's most productive badge earner having completed 54. She has been troop scribe the past two years.

Patty was a brownie in Detroit before moving to Farmington. She joined Troop 84 three years ago and has been active in all phases of scouting.

"WHERE IS SOMEONE to love me?" asks Mike Helke, who plays Sir Joseph in Eagle School's sixth grade production of the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "HMS Pinafore." Following the performance at Eagle, actors, singers, props and scenery were transported to Fairview, Kenbrook and Bond schools where the Pinafore anchored for appearances before students of those schools. New Sidewalks Coming For Floral Park Sub

A program to repair sidewalks in Floral Park subdivision will begin this summer.

The project is expected eventually to replace 34,000 square feet of sidewalk, much of which has been broken by the roots of maple trees.

In an effort to save the trees and prevent further damage, the city wants to route the new walks around the trees and trim some roots.

A letter informing residents their walk is in need of repair will be sent out soon, according to City Manager Robert Deadman.

This notice gives a homeowner 30 days to reply whether he wants to do the work himself and 60 days to finish the work.

This is expected to be followed by a necessity hearing and a special assessment district to repair the remaining sidewalk with a city contractor.
