Half Day Classes To Be Reversed At Clarencville

On Monday, January 23, all children in kindergarten, first, third and fourth grades at the Edgewood and Central Schools of the Clarencville District will change from their present morning sessions to the afternoon, or their present afternoon sessions to morning.

Louis Schmidt stated that the teachers will change with the students. The change-over is made for the benefit of the youngsters. Schmidt stated. Tests have proven that children learn more in the morning than in the afternoon.

There will be no school Friday, January 25, the day ending the first semester. Teachers and supervisors will use the day to bring records up to date.

Dar Editor:

I read with interest your recent article pertaining to the family who "adopted" the little Dutch girl, and send monthly contributions for her living expenses. It may interest some people to know that there are other organizations that accept contributions for the sake of their orphans in many lands, and through these organizations a person or group of people may "adopt" a girl or boy and send a certain sum each month for the child's upkeep. The benefactor will receive a picture of the child, and correspondence that is invited.

The Christian Children's Fund, Inc., of Richmond 4, Virginia, has orphanages in 17 countries. It is interdenominational, and is said to stress a fourfold development: "to give each boy and girl a sturdy body, informed mind, trained hands and, above all, Christian character."

I think these organizations are doing a very good work, and hope that many more people will help the children in those countries where the need is great. It helps to show what Americans have made of, as well as to give the benefactor the warm feeling of helping some little child in need.

Sincerely yours,
Farmington Resident

Dear Editor:

Jingle Bells! Jingle Bells! It's sort of fun enjoying our Christmas mail all through January, but we have one more to pick with the Enterprise. We won't pick on the post office because we know they've probably heard enough complaints already. However, The Enterprise snuggly stated at Christmas time that the post office was taking care of mail speedily.

"Although second class mail is being picked up, first class mail is going right through." Citizens of Farmington Township as well as their mail carriers will tell you that a three cent stamp has made little difference. Bills that should have been delivered three weeks ago have been delivered by usually scrupulous people. We haven't minded, particularly about our own bills coming late! However, receiving an invitation two weeks after a wedding takes place is too bad. And when we received an invitation to New Year's party, one we really would have enjoyed attending, on the eleventh of January, well, that was disgusting! Especially since the invitation was sent on the 26th of December from Farmington, Michigan. Hal a three cent stamp on it, too. Twenty-two days to go two miles!

Stand corrected!
A Farmington Township Resident.

are wardens needed, but also auxiliary policemen and firemen, persons interested in first aid, transportation and welfare.

Ray Babb, a Farmington resident and member of the State Civil Defense office in Region One, was present at the meeting to answer any questions. He explained the importance of civil defense to the Farmington area and urged support of the program. A suggestion was made that booklets be secured for distribution to all residents in the city and township pointing out the importance of the defense program and instructing the people on what to do should various situations arise.

A second public meeting on Civil Defense has been set for Tuesday, January 28, in the Farmington Town Hall. Plans are being made to secure films on civil defense and to report on the progress made in the organization of the area. Layton stated that everyone interested in the program is urged to attend the meeting.

Do yuh mind listenin' while we brag a bit? Somethin' new's bin added and we think it's pretty snazzy. We got us a new refrigerated produce case what keeps things fresh and crispy — anen we got another frozen food case so that yuh can git whatha want without havin' to ask us if we got some of. That ain't all, either. The boss man really shot the works and bought a 2-decker dairy case that's really somethin'! Matter of fact, we aint got enuf to fill it yet but give us time — we'll load 'er up with somethin'. Now while yer standin' there lookin' the new things over why doncha grab off a lb. of Conroy's coffee and grind it while you can git it fer 78c a lb. — but don't fergit to put the coffee bag under the spout before yuh turn on the hootananny to grind this coffee or yuh'll have it all over the floor. Then in the next aisle there's some 3 lb. Swiftin' what yuh can git this week end fer 93c. Right at the end of that aisle there's a couple kinds of fish yuh might want some of. There's a tall can of red salmon fer 79c and some of those Southern Star bonita flakes that are swell fer sandwiches and salads and you can git 2 cans of them fer 39c. That's somethin' to cheer about — but if yuh want yer cheer in a box — understand we said a box — not a bottle — you can git 2 boxes of it fer 57c. Aintcha glad yuh listened fer a minute, now??

Yuh wanna git some meat while yer here — doncha? The boys have some shoulder cut pork roasts what you can buy fer 35c a lb. Or do yuh feel like havin' spare ribs with kraut or dresin' or just bar-b-q-in' 'em! There's some nice fresh ones with meat on 'em fer 49c a lb. Fer breakfast we got sausage or bacon. The bacon is in squares fer just 19c a lb. and the pork sausage is our own homemade — seasoned jest right. It's in the bulk fer 39c a lb. Now if you wanna git some oleo at a real price we'll loan yuh our pencil and if yuh'll sign a coupon fer each pound yuh want you can git it fer 23c a lb. We might even letcha have 2 lbs. of this Creamo oleo fer 45c. That's a good airtin' price — doncha think??
