PFC. JOHN BAKER, JR.

Marine Private First Class John P. Baker, Jr., 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baker of 3507 Shilwa, was promoted to his present rank when he was graduated from "Boot" camp December 17.

Baker climaxed his recruit training by winning the marksmanship award on the rifle range when he fired a score of 265 out of a possible 280 during his weapons training.

During the past eight weeks of recruit training, as a result of field experience and class room lectures, the new Marine has become well versed in such military subjects as precision drill, first aid, hygiene, and field tactics. In addition to firing the famed Garand rifle for qualification, Baker fired other weapons including the .45 caliber pistol, carbine and BAR.

He also witnessed demonstration firing of the machine gun, mortar and flame thrower.

Baker entered the Marine Corps October 9, 1931. He was a recent employee of Cunningham's of Detroit where he was a pharmacist.
