LOCAL WEATHER... t has slipped a little this week. Usually it's at the top of the ma but this week it has dropped to third place. It isn't just a like either (No offense, Mr. Weatherman), we are just reempla-tion weather. In that's all. Lake week we made the bold statement spring must be on the way because the roads were softening up, by the time we could get the paper off the press the roads were again. Probably by the time you get this week's issue the roads be back on the Spring side again. So you see what we mean about apprais. We ought to learn hefore long that Spring comes often behand.
