Stevenson - Jolliffe Wedding Vows Exchanged In Charlevoix Church

In a candlelight ceremony, Audrey Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Stevenson of 22375 1/2 Abion, became the bride of James Dale Jolliffe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jolliffe, Sr., of Charlevoix, Michigan, in the Church of God at Charlevoix Saturday, January 25. The Rev. W. D. Wood performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with bouquets of white gladioli, carnations, ferns and tapers in candelabra. Laura Jean Stevenson, niece of the bride, sang "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Joyce Fiedler, who played traditional wedding marches during the rites.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white satin trimmed with iridescent sequins and fashioned with a sweet heart neckline of bright illusion and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Winston Stevenson, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Shirley Stevenson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Ruth Anne Stevenson was her sister's flower girl.

William Jolliffe, Jr., was best man and Fred Jolliffe was groomsmen. Both are brothers of the groom. Robert Jolliffe, also a brother of the groom, and Norman Empey were ushers.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception for 100 guests was held at the Charlevoix Fellowship Hall.

The couple left on a wedding trip through the East and February 1 were home at 700 Fairview Avenue, Grand Rapids.

SENIORS CHOOSE BILL GAIL BAND FOR FALCON PROM

The Senior Class of Farmington High School last week contracted for the services of Bill Gail and his orchestra for the Senior Prom, to be held on Saturday, April 26. Committee members headed by Rita Christian, chairman, heard two proposals of the music and consideration, and chose Bill Gail un-animously.

Gail has played here before, his last appearance in 1947 with Donald Korman as chairman of the music committee. He was well received by the students on each appearance.

A popular orchestra in this part of Michigan, Bill Gail plays regularly at such places as the Grosse Ile Naval Base, Book-Cadillac Hotel, Detroit Yacht Club, Masonic Temple and many hops and Proms.

Committee members for this year's Prom orchestra were Norlene Hamlin, Margaret Godfrey, Arlene Aho, Grace Toman, Gino Carnevale and James Mayer.

Between 1932 and 1948 Ferris Ingittus granted 415 degrees in Pharmacy, more than any other college in Michigan.

OAKLAND PARENT-TEACHER COUNCIL TO MEET FEB. 19

The Oakland County Council of Parent and Teachers will hold its Founders' Day meeting on Tuesday, February 19, at the Drayton Plains School auditorium. The meeting will start with registration from 9:30 to 10:00 a.m. and will adjourn promptly at 3:00 p.m.

The morning session will include the regular business meeting, a review of an outstanding article from a National Parent Teacher magazine by Mrs. James Hull of Lambert School, and a follow-up film on mental hygiene to be introduced by Miss Dorothy Salts of Lambert.

Highlights of the afternoon will be community singing, a history of the County Council by the historian, Mrs. R. S. Hilsman, and a play, "Scattered Showers," produced by a group from Waterford Township and introduced by its director, Miss Freida Huggett, Council Chairman of Home and Family Living.

The luncheon will be put on by the Mother Singers, and reservations for it may be made by calling Mrs. Frank Sutherland, ORland 2-2149.

To Give Concert At Clarenceville

The Wayne - Oakland County League is presenting the All League Concert Band in a concert at the Clarenceville High School gymnasium Monday, February 18, at 8:15 p.m.

Composed of musicians from all of the league schools, the band will perform seven selections, each under the direction of a different faculty conductor. A guest faculty ensemble from Michigan State College will perform two selections.

The scheduled program following the Star Spangled Banner is Sousa's "The Palmet of the Fair" conducted by Clarkston's William Jantoni; Schubert's first movement from symphony in B Minor conducted by Northville's Leslie Lee; Michigan State College's guest faculty ensemble, selections from Flo-tow's "Martha" to be conducted by Clarenceville's Joseph Markell.

After intermission and following remarks by Clarenceville Superintendent Louis E. Schmidt, the program will continue with Gould's "American Salute" to be conducted by Clarkston's William Jantoni; Graef's "On The Trail" from the "Grand Canyon Suite" to be conducted by Holly's Leland Brode; Michigan State College guest faculty selection, Strauss' waltz from "Der Rosenkavalier" conducted by Philip Hadrill of Milford and the program will close with Sousa's "El Capitano" with Gene Page of Northville conducting.

MOTHERS' CLUB PLANS "ALL YOU CAN EAT" DINNER

An evening that people in Farmington will remember for a long time is being planned for Wednesday, February 20, starting at 6:30 p.m. when members of the Methodist Mothers' Club serve their Smorgasbord Dinner in the newly decorated basement of the Methodist Church.

There will be an array of choice Swedish dishes, along with some good old American favorites. The dinner will be served in the regular smorgasbord manner — all you can eat!

Decorations and entertainment will be in true Swedish style and promises to be most unusual and exciting.

Tables for the service of four are being arranged. It is advisable to obtain your reservations early as accommodations are limited. Call Mrs. Max Mitchell, 1675-W or Mrs. Henry Trombley, 0239-W.
