ROLLING DOWN THE RIVER

By Bob Kettler

Now the other day a young couple was in this Studebaker Emporium of ours busily selecting their new show-room. So what with one thing and another we engaged in a bit of chit-chat about kids and what was the modern world coming to... and kids. The young father says modern kids don't have initiative, especially the sort he says he "when I was a kid I played hooky from school quite often. I'd come home with the other kids and no one ever, was any the wiser. And his ever-loving wife, who no doubt had long awaited the opportunity, said, "especially you dear!"

But that's the way things go and if you've been playing hooky from your show-room, you haven't had the opportunity to see how really great the '52 Studebaker is, especially the new "hard top" Starliner. Long, sweeping lines, beautiful interior, a superbly powerful V8 engine in the Commander models, plus truly amazing economy, make the Studebaker a car you must see... and enjoy. Drop around this week end for a demonstration... you'll love the car... you'll love the way it handles...

Not too long ago a lady brought her car in for a bit of lubrication and naturally we had to ask her how things were. She told us about her four-year-old son and how we feel sorry for him. He tackled the cookie jar, but it slipped to the floor and broke. Hoping to cover up, he ran into the front room exclaiming, "Moth-er, just come and see what your dog did!" There on the sofa beside his mother was the dog.

There's a mild touch of spring and a mild touch of winter in the air these days. (In fact with the income tax at hand there's a bit of rain in the air.) Makes it a bit rugged on the ole ears. Great if you've been there too long. Give the car a break this week and new fresh... and while you're here, have one of the motor's first-class tune-ups... you'll be glad you did.

That's that, but with income tax at hand these guys that have operated on the basis of the word "press me a living" had better write it off as a bad debt.

Yours, BOB KETTLER
