checking cases, with a few and prolonged criminal investigations.

The federal civil defense administration warns Michigan residents against being taken in by racketeers who sell guaranteed "radiation proof overalls" and the like. FCDA says that even if genuinely protective clothing would be devised probably no one would be wearing it at the right time.

Michigan's birth rate is playing hob with its schools. Some 170,000 babies were born last year as compared with 99,000 in 1940. School officials say they will get 109,000 new pupils next fall while seats are needed already for 108,000 now in overcrowded facilities.

After voting to the press a few weeks ago that he had been cured of the "politics bug", Eugene C. Keyes has turned his back on his pious resolutions and declared himself in the U. S. Senate race. On what logic? Why the independent - progressive - Republican side - of course. Keyes' last billboard campaign fizzled miserably.

Michigan taxpayers last year paid out $4,509,000,000 in federal, state and local taxes. This compared with $4,334,010 in 1950, the largest increase in history, according to the department of revenue. The tax load in Michigan has increased tenfold since 1930.

The emergency commission on defense contracts has moved on Washington.

Confiscated Deer Hides Bring Bids Of $1,868.50

A total of 542 confiscated hides from illegally killed deer, offered for auction by the Conservation Department under sealed bids, produced $1,868.50 for the state game protection fund.

Since portable buildings aren't anchored to a permanent foundation, it is extremely important that the entire building be built into a rigid unit.
