ROLLING DOWN THE RIVER

By Bob Kettler

We don't usually go around telling war stories because by the time we're through some-cuple of wars too late, and once an old codger tells us his pappy tells him the story und the war was the Revolution and the telling telling the story letter supposedly was a general with the initials of G. W.

G. W.

But we like this one so: a couple of medics in Korca were discussing a G. It hat picks or the couple of medics in Korca were discussing a G. It hat picks or the couple of the co

Well, the folks that buy the brand new Studenker at this sales institution come back too ... and most of them do it occup two years or so because they know there's nothing finer than Studenker. Not only because such a fine car should not be kept a secret. You'll think so, too, once you've driver the '32 Studenker with it ruly amazing Veo coughts that you want to be the cought of the cought o

Like the poet says, "Ah, Spring, when a young man's fancy..." but not half as fancy as the girl he's been trying to impress all winter.

Come to think of it, with Spring all handy, it's time for a complete laberation, including the rear-end and a wheel pack. That car of yours can stand a little "sulphur and molasses" motor tune-up. It's taken a complete to the guide of a motor tune-up. It's taken a complete to the guide of a motor tune-up. It's taken a complete to the sulphur to the car, when our expert mechanics can put it in first class condition so quickly and so economically.

That's that, except we hereby announce we're not a candidate for President. We spent so much time being pleased with everything that's good about this country of ours, we forget a politician must know everything that's wrong with it!

Yours. BOB KETTLER
