Meadowbrook Murmurs By Mrs. Dean Eckert

The current tune "I Like It" seems to fit everybody's mood these days as we thoroughly enjoy a perfect preview of summer. The Senior class at Clarenceville High are especially dreamy about the weather because it hints of graduation days and the thrilling Great Lakes boat trip they have scheduled for late in May. It will be a four-day cruise to Mackinac Island and are they excited!

Wanting to help the seniors finance their trip expenses, Senior Moms are sponsoring a benefit card party this Saturday evening at 8 p.m. at the high school. Help make it a crowd... you dads, especially! Wouldn't you like to win a heater for your car? A beautiful quilt is among the prizes, too, all being donated by parents and local merchants. Let's help the seniors have a real trip this year!

Last week-end's preview of a week next summer was pretty terrific, according to eight year old Rob Swarthout and his pal Johnny Dennis, who is also. They joined three other young fellows near Piquette at the summer retreat of Robert's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Swarthout of Wyandotte. They did plenty of horseback riding, of course, for their living quarters were over a stable, the upper floor of a barn!

A bird's-eye view of the vocational departments at Clarenceville High was presented to parents attending the April P. T. A. meeting last week. Miss Nancy Bery spoke on the Home Economics department, Mr. Marx and Mr. Protenge outlined Shop work and a trip through their rooms was enjoyed. The May P. T. A. meeting will feature the installation of officers.

Floralist Harold Wright will demonstrate floral arrangements and table decorations at the Clarenceville school gym Thursday evening, May 1, when Band Booster Moms present their flower show. A bake sale will accompany the evening's entertainment. Let's go!

day evening as she missed her aunt's wedding because of the measles. Her little sister Penny Haight, daughter of the Richard Hights of Schoolcraft Road, did the flower girl act all alone as Miss Juanita Haight became Mrs. Thomas Percival Saturday evening. Asked Monday morning if she was relieved the big affair was over, Nita's mom, Mrs. Carlyle Haight of Dresden Street, said she was equally busy this week improving a apartment in their basement recreation room for the newly-weds who will be back from a honeymoon in Florida early in May.

The Girl Scouts of Troop 6 took advantage of their Easter vacation but good. They went downtown to the "Cinderella Week End" television show and then to the Verner's night. Leaders accompanying them, were Mrs. Richard Schulkins, Mrs. Rickert, Mrs. Beard, Mrs. Tyler and Mrs. Covel. "Verner's" seventy-first birthday was the excuse for a wonderful family day at the Oxford Street home of the Edgar Halllocks Sunday. Mom is Mrs. Otto Halllock of East Street and her April 26 birthday was celebrated a week early. They had a scrumptious turkey dinner and a scrumptious turkey supper, according to Mrs. Allen Halllock, who was there with hubby and son David. Also celebrating were Mr. Otto Halllock, Miss Elizabeth Halllock and the Barbours and Virgins. Halllock, John Kelts with son Brian.

A belated birthday celebration for Mrs. Richard Schulkins was in progress Sunday evening at the Schulkins' Middlebelt Road home. Daughter Sharon enjoyed the candle-blowing part, and is looking forward to the two candles on her cake May 2.

Falcon Medley Team Places At Invitational

Farmington High School's track team probably took fifth place in the Class "A" sprint medley race at the River Rouge Invitational track meet held in Ann Arbor Saturday. It was the first time Falcon track had placed in the annual meet. About 80 schools, 20 in each class, were entered at the meet.

Farmington's time in the mile-long sprint medley was 3:56.4. Jim Bryant ran the 880, Dave Sosmith the 220, Dean Whitehead the 220 and Bob Mansfield the 440 to achieve the fifth spot in the race. Dean Whitehead set a new Farmington High pole vault record by clearing ten feet at the Invitational but failed to place in the meet.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bush caught three foxes Sunday morning. There was one large fox and two puppies. It will be a wonderful help to farmers now because the foxes feed on chickens.
