Springbrook Scenes

The birthday club met last Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Margaret Zellmer on Springbrook Drive in honor of her birthday. Mrs. Shirley Logan, Mrs. Alice Oress, Mrs. Maxine Lynch, Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Mrs. Gladys Ogg, Mrs. Barbara Santos and Mrs. Geraldine Deaven were among the guests who participated in the activities. The group later enjoyed a delightful luncheon. Mrs. Elue Gilga, who lives on Pembroke, has taken the place of Mrs. Heane Wisbart, who recently moved to Toledo. Mrs. Lette Deaven was a substitute for Mrs. Whitehouse, who was unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Squire Cushman were week end guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deaven.

Bruce Treweek was one of the many students home from college for spring vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor of Westmoreland and their daughter, Linda, are visiting relatives and friends in their old home towns of Erie, Pennsylvania, and Astabula, Ohio.

Mr. Henry Harrison, who resides on Harcourt, is spending a week visiting in Wisconsin.

It sure looks like summer is here already with so many of our people away on vacation. I hope old man weather doesn't play tricks on us and bring more cold.

Mrs. Herbert Rowe has recovered from her recent surgery and is now able to return to his position.

Mrs. Homer Kentridge is expected to go well. It is reported. A card from you would cheer her greatly, even though you do not know her personally. She is still in St. Joseph's Hospital in Piquette. No room number is needed for the card to reach her. It is still not certain when she will be able to return to her home and four little children on Springbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sullivan from Burt, Michigan, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnston Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns and their sons were dinner guests in the home of friends in Detroit Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry White and family spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor on Springbrook Drive.

Mrs. Lyman Bush, a delegate from the West Farmington Farm Bureau Group, attended the Oakland County Farm Bureau Women's Committee meeting held at the home of Mrs. William Maurice Jones of Halsted Road, Walled Lake, Tuesday.

Going as a delegate from the West Farmington Farm Bureau Group to the Michigan Farm Bureau District meeting held at Hartland Wednesday was Mrs. Otto Rezin. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ruby Slayter, Mrs. Edna Murgock and Mrs. Maurice Jones of the Walled Lake Group.

Guests at the Martin Hults home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hults of Garden City.

Two From Area To Be Honored At U - M

The twenty-ninth annual Honors Convocation of the University of Michigan will be held Friday, April 25, at 11 a. m. in Hill Auditorium, a university spokesman reports.

The speaker will be Alastair Cooke, chief American correspondent of the Manchester Guardian. Invitations have been mailed to 613 students and to their families inviting them to the Convocation.

Among students from this area receiving invitations are Walter Bjarnesen, 17820 Merriam, sophomore honors in the College of Literature, Science and Arts, and David Peter Johnson of Franklin, senior honors in the College of Literature, Science and Arts.

Pilot Witnesses Five Deer Playing Tag

Flying over a Macleek County beaver pond near Millicoque lake, conservation department pilot John Rossi noted five deer on the icy cover.

Clear observation revealed the deer were playing a sort of tag. One deer would run up and nudge another with its head . . . and then scamper. The other deer would chase the first and continue the frolic. All five took part in the game which Rossi watched from the air.

Novi News

By MRS. GEORGE WAITE

Mr. and Mrs. William MacRoberts entertained his two brothers, one from Oklahoma and one from Louisiana, a couple of days the past week. They were called here by the serious illness of their mother, who is in the hospital at Chatham, Ontario.

Mrs. Ed Putnam entertained at a miscellaneous shower in her home Saturday afternoon honoring Norma Dowell, who will become the bride of Henry Sulkowski May 3. They will live in the Art Trobert apartment. There were 21 present from Farmington, Detroit, South Lyon, Novi and Belleville. Games were played, awards given and a lunch served. The bride-to-be received many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Lillian Leavenworth is confined to her bed with an eye infection.

Mrs. Andrew McCollum is at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Extension Group 2, headed by Mrs. Margaret Mairs, will hold a bake sale at Harbord's Confectionary May 2 beginning at 10 a. m. Anyone who would like to make a donation are asked to call Mrs. James Little at Northville 966-W12.

The William MacRoberts have sold their home and business property to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Latchford, who will take possession next week. The MacRoberts are going to Arizona.

Mrs. Kathryn Bachart and Mrs. Rowena Sallow accompanied Mrs. Della Farmer to Jackson Michigan to the Old Ford and Rebeckah Home where she will live.

Little John Thayer of Farmington spent the week end at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Waite.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Harrawood attended a banquet in Detroit last Thursday evening.

The W. S. C. S. met at the Methodist Church last Wednesday and the following officers were appointed by Rev. McClucas: president, Evelyn Cotter; vice president, Neill; secretary, Bertha Mitchell. They laid plans for a spring festival May 7 with a luncheon starting at 11:30. Everyone is welcome. Fine goods and baked goods will be on sale.

WORKERS "PROTECTED"

The picture during the so-called Dark Ages apparently wasn't completely dark. The Book House for Children tells how "apprenticed" workers of the time were protected by contract from the indignities of having to baby-sit or wash dishes for their master's wives."
