COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO HOLD ANNUAL LUNCHEON
The Oakland County Pioneer and Historical Society will hold its annual luncheon meeting on Thursday, May 22, at the United Presbyterian Church in Pontiac, according to Donald E. Adams of Drayton Plains, president.

Guest speaker will be Frank B. Woodford of Detroit, author of the biography "Lewis Cass, the Last Jeffersonian". Mr. Woodford is on the staff of the Detroit Free Press.

The board of directors of the society met recently to lay plans for the meeting and decided on the United Presbyterian Church so that those attending the luncheon could conveniently visit the "Moses" Vignar home, 405 Oakland Avenue, Pontiac, across the street from the church, for an open house following the luncheon and program.

Meetings of the society are open to anyone in the county.

LETTER TO EDITOR
Opinions expressed in this column are those of the writer and not necessarily those of the publisher of this newspaper.

Dear Editor:
Is there anything in the City Ordinances which prohibits overgrown hedges, so near the street that motorists are unable to see each other? We have several intersections where this condition exists. Also there are other hedges, not at intersections, which could conveniently be seen when cars are approaching. These things happen so suddenly, a motorist must travel at a snail's pace and be quick with the brakes. Removing the hedges so that motorists can see would save lives.
