

Conservation Department Survey Maps Being Made

Mapping of 90 more lakes in 23 counties has been finished but the conservation department emphasizes that, none of the new maps will be ready for distribution to the fishing public until late summer.

Popular with fishermen, this type of map which also shows depth, bottom contour and other lake features, also interests present and prospective lake frontage owners.

Thirty of the newly mapped lakes are in Grand Traverse County and 13 are in Chippewa County. Others are in Mackinac, Houghton, Harara, Luce, Dickinson, Jackson, Osego, Ingham, Livingston, Wash-

Meadowbrook

By Mrs. Dean Eckert

What a lovely little present we got for Mother's Day! Our Miss Pitalis has the measles and her lovely Springtime tan has turned to a horrid-looking sunburn!

Mothers-in-law are getting younger and prettier every day. In this modern age that is a fact, so we weren't a bit surprised to hear a discussion about a beautiful wedding that took place Saturday night. The bride was lovely, yes, but almost stealing the show was her future mom-in-law, "ravishing in pink lace."

Not resting on her laurels on Mother's Day was Mrs. Anna Koller of 28822 Eight Mile Road, for whom the Mother's Day week end means a great deal of work since she is a florist. Taking his place in the communion next Sunday at St. Agatha's in Detroit will be Mrs. Koller's son, Michael, who will be twelve soon. Her eight year old grandson, Dennis Leyschok of Detroit, also is preparing for this great event. And joining them from this neighborhood is ten year old Randall Cuffield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Cuffield of 29423 List Street. The boys are attending school there each day.

This week with their busy moms keeping a busy "bus schedule" going.

Two year old Sharon Shulkins, the Richard Shulkins' little helper at 21110 Middlebelt Road, has weathered her first stitch-up like a big girl. Sharon sliced her finger on a broken jar and several stitches were embroidered on her. After a couple days, of course, the hand-ages was lots of fun to show off.

Moving to Wisconsin are the Glenn Andersons, who spent their first year of married life in our neighborhood. Taking over their apartment at Keller apartments on Eight Mile Road are the Harry McKitticks. Mr. McKittick is the much-liked coach at Clarenceville High School.

Sharing a house with two other couples has proved real fun for Corporal and Mrs. Harold Young, Jr., whose busy household is located at Sparta, Wisconsin, a few miles from Camp McCoy. One of the couples has a baby which truly "belongs" to the other two envious couples and they share it like they do the washing machine and bathtub. Though the grass may usually be greener on the other side of the fence, all three couples, themselves restricted from a normal life, feel pretty lucky. They're not in Korea!
