Novi News

MRS. GEORGE WAITE

Wednesday, May 7, the Community Council honored all leaders and committees of the Girl and Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Brownie Scouts with an appreciation dinner at the Rosewood. Judge Arthur Moore of Pontiac was the guest speaker.

The Sunday School of the Methodist Church honored the mothers Sunday, May 11, with a special program and each mother received a potted plant.

Wednesday, May 21, the WSCS will meet at the church with Mrs. Ruth Erwin and Mrs. Clara Clark as hostesses. Persons are asked to come prepared to sew on cancer pads.

Tuesday evening, May 13, the combined fourth quarterly conference of the Novi and Brighton churches was held at the Novi Church with Dr. Fritch, district superintendent, present.

Wednesday, May 14, at the Wallied Lake Baptist Church, the Women's annual spring conference of the Women's Missionary Society of Wayne was held.

A May breakfast will be held at the Baptist Church on Thursday, May 15.

Sunday evening, May 18, Rev. Grace Morse will be the guest speaker at the Baptist Church in Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacRoberts and Mr. and Mrs. George Waite had dinner at the Blue Danube Thursday, May 8, in honor of Mr. Waite's birthday.

Talk about surprises, if you want the full definition of the word, ask Mrs. Vina Smart of Waite Lake. She was surprised when Mrs. Verna Schröder, Mrs. Dorothy MacRoberts and Mrs. Alice Waite asked her to go for a ride and out to lunch. They stopped at Hotford Inn where they brought in a lighted birthday cake and Mrs. Smart was speechless. Afterward they went into the parlor and played canasta.

Thursday, May 8, the Novi Rebekah Lodge was hostess to the 20 lodges of District 6. There were 96 members present. After the regular meeting a discussion with visiting lodge members was held. A lovely lunch concluded the meeting.

The Past Noble Grands will be entertained in the home of Mrs. Helen Ottich Thursday, May 15, with a full dinner at noon. Afterwards they will have their business meeting and games.

Several ladies of the Novi Lodge are planning to go to the visitation May 21 at Verbena Lodge in Holly.

SPRINGBROOK SCENES

Mrs. Howard Legg
PHONE FARMINGTON 3011-W

A war was declared last week in our neighborhood — a war on dust. All our neighbors joined in and donated money to have the road sprayed with calcium chloride by the Oakland County road workers.

Mrs. Lenora McClurg broke her leg in two places last week when a swing broke and pinned her leg double under her. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McClurg of 23625 Springbrook Drive. Don't forget to drop her a card because she will be in a cast for quite a while and will be unable to finish school. A card will cheer her greatly.

Mrs. Margaret Zehner was hoping around on a sprained ankle last week.

Larry Kleiser, the newsboy, was under a doctor's care last week and taking treatments for poison sumac.

Mrs. Margaret Gassner was hostess last Wednesday evening when she opened her Springbrook Drive home to Mrs. Lou Dedson, Mrs. Beatrice Bettridge, Mrs. Marion Gilmore, Mrs. Phyllis Taylor and Mrs. Mary Legg for a Stanley party. She received a very beautiful lamp and many other small gifts as a reward.

She Ellen and Charlotte Ann Legg visited their great grandmother, Mrs. Nora Johnson, in Detroit Saturday to wish her an early Mother's Day greeting. Mrs. Johnson has 37 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren growing from her own family of 13 children.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kahl spent the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shinville on Evanston Avenue in Detroit, whose only child, Betty Shinville, was married to Mr. Don Bandmire at the Peace Lutheran Church. The young couple left for a Florida honeymoon following a large reception.

Little Gail Guenther took part in the ballet recital held at the Farmington High School last Friday evening. Gail's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Guenther.

Ronny Whitehouse has been confined to his home on Rockwell with the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cushman spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rudy of Springbrook Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. John Brandvold and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Treweek, Sr., attended the annual spring concert given by the Men's Glee Club of the University of Michigan Saturday evening. Mr. Bruce Treweek, son of the Gilbert Treweeks, is a member of the Glee Club.

Mrs. John Aland, Sr., of Shiawassee is spending a week visiting her sister, Mrs. Edna Byers, in Pontiac.

Mrs. John Brandvold entertained eight of her friends from Detroit Wednesday evening at a bridge party.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hill returned home Saturday after visiting her sister, Mrs. Mildred White, in East Detroit for a week.

Mrs. Charles Wheeler and her son, Bobby, left Sunday morning with friends to visit her mother, Mrs. Isenberg, and sister, Mrs. Dabert Allen in Hialeah, Florida. She expects to spend ten days there if the gasoline strike permits.

Mrs. Isenberg and Mrs. Allen are both former residents of Pent Road in Farmington.

Wednesday, May 7, was the birth date of Ann Carol Balone, who weighed six pounds, nine ounces when she came to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Balone and big sister Terry on Grand River Avenue. The proud new mother is the former Carol Joy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Joy.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Treweek, Jr., of Westmoreland became the parents of a baby daughter May 10 at the Highland Park Osteopathic Hospital. The baby's name is Deborah. She weighed six pounds and is their first child.

The Robert Smith family on Turk Road became parents with the arrival of a baby boy May 10 who weighed nine pounds 12 ounces when he arrived at Sessions Hospital in Northville.

Hill Miller, who works at the Farmington Lumber Company, was hospitalized in St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor, with a serious leg injury. His son, Corporal Stanley Miller, who is stationed at Coco, Florida, with the Air Force, was allowed to come home to see his father.

The jasmine, double-rose and carnella were first brought into Europe by the Arabs about 1300 A.D., according to research experts.

By keeping your farm shop clean and storing tools and equipment carefully, you can more efficiently and can help cut accidents.

STATE PAYS BOUNTY

The state paid $5,975 in bounties on 922 foxes, 67 coyotes and 11 wolves in March, according to the conservation department. This was somewhat higher than in February.

The beaver yields a peculiar product called castoreum, an oily, heavily scented substance which was formerly used in medicine.
