A SMASHING SUCCESS was the audience verdict when grades one through six at Wood Creek Elementary School presented a musical melodrama, "Curses! Foiled Again." Marla Edgar as Little Nell reacted appropriately when Scat Littenberg, as W. C. Fields, performed the "Skunk trick." Twenty-five actors, a first and second grade charus, a 68-voice school charus and concert band were helped along by a student stage crew. (Evert photo)

Seniors Collect Papers For Center

An ongoing project to make money to finance a new center for Farmington's senior citizen square dancers now uses help from local teenagers.

The square dancers, who meet regularly in the Livonia Senior Citizens Center, Five Mile and Farmington Roads, have a dream of building a home of their own in New Hudson, according to caller Fred W. Sheill, Farmington. To this end, they have been collecting old newspapers, which are dropped off at the Federal department store in the downtown Farmington center.

This year, they are enroling the help of local teenagers.
