

Old Doe Deer Returns To Usual Bearing Spot

An old doe deer, returning to her customary secluded spot near the Hoeltz state park entrance, has given birth to at least one fawn. Last year she had twins, reports Ferris W. Wheeler, conservation department park manager, who says she has been coming back to this spring hiding place for several years.

Fawn, dropping period reached its peak in Michigan in early June.

Hunter-Dodging Flights End For Old Duck

Hunter-dodging flights down "Detroit River Alley" have ended for one of the oldest conservation department-banded ducks of record.

A black duck, presumably a veteran of 10 fall hunting campaigns in annual north and south migrations, has been recovered from the lower Detroit river by state game men.

CLARENCEVILLE CLIPPINGS

Mrs. Richard Schulkins
Phone Farmington 1479-J

Nothing but parties galore for first, second, third and fourth graders during the last days of school.

Dean Eckerts left our neighborhood this last week end, moving to their new home in Livonia.

Brownie Girl Scouts of the Clarenceville area are looking forward to the next two weeks when they will attend Day Camp.

The Billings headed north last Friday to spend the week end at their cottage.

In the next few months most of our neighbors will be leaving on their vacations. Let us hear all about yours.

"Personality Aprons" is the current hobby project of Mrs. Richard Veasey of 29223 Dresden Street. She makes them of organdy and designs each specially for the type of personality who will wear it. To date she is pretty busy making them for friends but she'd like to make it a business, she claims.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pesney, formerly of Detroit, are getting acquainted with their newly acquired home at 29233 Scotton Street. They will have a half acre of lawn to keep up so they see them working and get a chance to get acquainted with them.

Last Wednesday evening eight of the members of the Girl Scout Association had dinner at Huck's Redford Inn. Quite an enjoyable evening was held. It was the final get-together until next fall.

What a time of the year to be sick! Four year old Mike Howard of 29358 Scotton has been sick the last few days. Mother says she has been spending much time taking care of him.

Troop 6 of the Clarenceville Girl Scouts had its first meeting of the semester at the home of Mrs. Romelda Rickert. The girls all brought nose-bag lunches. Carol Ann Rickert's birthday was Thursday so the leaders, Mrs. Edna Page and Mrs. Romelda Rickert, served kold aid and cup cakes with a candle on each one to honor Carol Ann. The girls finished their first aid bandage under the leadership of Mrs. Lily Darnum.

Little five months old Linda Houghton's mother was pretty surprised and excited over Linda's first tooth last week.

Summetts III sure is having the time of his life since he can get outside and play. Especially when his cousin Sharon Schulkins gets over.

Sure is heck to get the mooseles this time of the year, especially when the weather is so nice and school is out. Nine year old Melinda Schulkins had them last week. Melinda's parents are the Robert Schulkins of 21604 Parker Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hawley had dinner at Rosewood Hills last Tuesday evening with the Lions Club of Farmington Township. Vern was installed as a Lion that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dix and Mrs. Mary and Gregory spent Father's Day with Mrs. Dix's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gildgmeister at 23806 Farmington Road.

Mr. Robert Dix of 32344 Grand River and Miss Jacqueline Ann Tatham of Pontiac were married June 14 at St. Michael's Church in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dix of 21130 Middlebelt were two of the attendants. Willis was best man for his brother and his wife, Sally, was bridesmaid. A reception followed in the church basement. In the evening another reception was held at the K. of C. Hall in Pontiac.

The Misses Carol Dennis, Marie Barry, Elaine Johnson and Barbara Schmidt of our area were participants in a piano festival held at the Olympia last week. There were 300 children in the festival and all were dressed in white. The festival was given by Grinnell Brothers of Detroit.

Oh, to be a child again! Monday Mrs. MacGrogan brought her class from Central School over to the home of Mrs. House at 21512 Roosevelt. It was the birthday of Rachel House. The children enjoyed the home made cookies and popples which Mrs. House served.

Tuesday Miss Hawkins brought her second graders to the House yard, and enjoyed cookies and popples.

Mrs. Becht's first grade morning class went over to the home of Mrs. Charles Grose at 29217 List Street and had an "end of the year" picnic. Mrs. Griffin came over to help both Mrs. Grose and Mrs. Becht. Wednesday morning second graders used Mrs. House's yard for their picnic. The teachers, Miss Thomas and Mrs. Buckman, were with the children. The main attraction at the House yard were their two baby rabbits.

The Wednesday afternoon fourth graders went to Tommy Hawley's back yard at 21125 Middlebelt and had their picnic. Mrs. Hawley served potato chips and popples. The teachers, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Buckman, were with the children. The main attraction at the House yard were their two baby rabbits.

Miss Shirley Schulkins of 31140 Ten Mile Road, who will be a senior at Farmington High School this year, is making clothes pin bags. They are cute. They are like a year-old baby dress with a cute half apron attached.

The teacher, Mrs. House, took the children back to her home and gave each a popple.

Miss Shirley Schulkins of 31140 Ten Mile Road, who will be a senior at Farmington High School this year, is making clothes pin bags. They are cute. They are like a year-old baby dress with a cute half apron attached.

She is making them to sell and hopes to use the money to go through nursing school.

Friday, the 13th, was an ominous day for some but it was a lucky day for Kenneth Benett of 21118 Tuck Road, who celebrated his birthday that day. That evening Mr. and Mrs. Benett and daughter Sandra and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hawley and children Lorraine and Tommy celebrated Ken's birthday in the Hawley back yard with a picnic.

Miss Delores Leflar and Mr. Fred Grose, Jr., were married at Clarenceville Methodist Church by Rev. Elsie Johns Saturday.

The reception was on the Fred Grose, Sr., lawn. They are spending two weeks honeymooning at Virginia Beach, Virginia, and are now traveling through Pennsylvania and Washington, D. C.

SCHOOLS DON'T GIVE ALL STUDENTS SAME JOB OPPORTUNITY

Education today lacks realism from the standpoint of the modern work-a-day world, a University of Michigan educator contends.

Ralph C. Wenrich, professor of vocational education, claims that it is a mistake to give all young people the same kind of instruction. His opinion is that:

"If we insist on giving all youths a general or college-preparatory secondary school education, we are not giving the most equal opportunity to succeed in life."

He points out that less than eight per cent of Michigan's labor force is engaged in the professions, while approximately 55 per cent is in industrial pursuits, about 20 per cent in business, and fewer than eight per cent in agriculture.

"Educational opportunities in Michigan high schools are definitely slanted in favor of students planning to go to college to study for a profession," the educator charges.

"Unfortunately, less than 25 per cent of our youth are attending high schools which provide the opportunity to get an education for work in industry. This is in spite of the fact that in Michigan 55 per cent of our labor force is employed in industry," Prof. Wenrich asserts.

"It's time we recognized that such values as honesty, appreciation of beauty, devotion to truth, respect for excellence, and the pursuit of happiness can all be taught in a vocational program.

"The beauty of the grain of a walnut board or the odor of freshly cut pieces of pine lumber can be the source of cultural stimulation in no less degree than paintings and symphonic music," Professor Wenrich declares.

Michigan Frog Hunting Season Begins June 25

Frog hunters will get their annual chance at the big croakers June 25, opening day of the frog season in Michigan.

Frogs again may be taken in any manner, except by use of a spear with light. The season extends through November 15, and no license is required to take or sell frogs.

A table delicacy, frog legs are taken from mostly green to green frog.
