Bidwell - Malosh
Vows Spoken

Frieda Lorraine Bidwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bidwell of 216 Church Street, Northville, became the bride of J. Ellsworth Malosh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Malosh of Lake, Michigan, in a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Harold Fredsell in the First Presbyterian Church of Northville Saturday, June 21.

For her wedding the bride chose a Chantilly lace over white satin gown with circular train and high neckline. Attached to her crown was a silk illusion veil in fingertip length. She carried white roses and gladioli.

Maid of honor, dressed in blue taffeta gown with matching lace cap and carrying pink roses, was the bride's sister Joanne Bidwell. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Glenn Spencer and Mrs. Harvey Bush.

Nobel May of Saginaw, a former college roommate, assisted the groom as best man. Ushers were Harold Hayes and Richard Kremkow. Ring bearer was Terry Collins while Elaine Kay Mangels was the flower girl.

Mrs. G. V. Harrison played "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me" and "Because."

A reception was held in the church house after the rites.

Out-of-town guests were from Pontiac, Farmington, Clarkston, Wixom, Milford, New Hudson, South Lyon, Saginaw, Bay City, Monroe, Lake, Springdale, Washington, Imlay City and Novi.

The bride, a 1949 graduate of Michigan State Normal College, taught at Arenac Eastern High School in Twining, Michigan. The groom, a 1950 graduate of Michigan State College, is a veteran instructor at Bay City Junior College.

DANCE STUDENTS PRESENT THREE ACT SHOW

The Betty Johnston Dance Studio presented "Dancing is Magic" in the Clarenceville High School auditorium last Saturday night. The presentation featured over 15 children and had three acts.

The first act gave a brief demonstration of fundamental tap routines. These were presented by the beginning students, semi-advanced students and advanced students. The second and third acts told a story in dance fashion. David, David Barker, a young man, has dreams of seeing all of the beautiful girls of the world. He declares his love for Belle, Donna Yurish, but she knows he is dreaming of far-off places and leaves him to his dreams. His dreams take him to Ireland, Hawaii, France, Spain and to the jungles. The third act found David's dream taking him back to the United States where he finds that the American girls are not so bad after all.

Velma Esch Weds Robert W. Waite
In Salem Church Ceremony June 14

MRS. ROBERT W. WAITE

Candle lights, baskets of white mums and gladioli formed the background for the marriage of Velma Esch and Robert W. Waite in the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church June 14. Rev. Carl H. Schultz performed the double-ring ceremony.

Velma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Esch of Dolphin Avenue, Detroit, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white marquisette over taffeta, ending with a short train. The fitted bodice was fashioned with long sleeves ending in points over her wrists. Her sweetheart neckline was marked with a ruffled border trimmed with lace around the yoke of illusion. With it she wore a single strand of pearls held in place by a sweetheart tiara. The bride's bouquet was of white roses.

Mrs. Leona Frey, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was yellow net over nylon. Her sweetheart headpiece matched her gown. She carried tallman roses.

The bride's cousins, Arlene Rossow and Mary Giesler, were the bridesmaids. Arlene wore an orchid gown and carried yellow roses.

as while Mary wore blue and carried pink roses.

Robert, son of Mrs. Barbara Waite and the late Mr. Arthur Waite, was assisted by Lynn Frey as best man. Ushers were James Yull and Richard Tyler.

A reception for 200 guests was held in the church dining room after the rites.

The bride and groom left for northern Michigan on their honeymoon.
